

BALLINGER SAYS THEY ALL DO LIE

Secretary on Stand Questions Veracity of Nearly Every Man who Has Testified Against Him

HE CALLS GARFIELD CROOKED

Says He Misrepresented Facts as to Cane Matter; Glavis and Jones Lie; Love Is O. K.

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 29.—That L. R. Glavis "deliberately lied" in the congressional investigating committee was the accusation made today by Secretary Ballinger, testifying in his own behalf.

Following are some of Ballinger's main statements in his first round on the stand:

That when he cleared the "Cunningham Alaskan claims" he acted properly and would do it again.

That he never had any interest in Alaskan claims.

That Glavis was never "hampered" but was "pampered" in his work.

That up to the time he became land commissioner, he never had one of the Cunningham claimants as a client.

That Special Agent H. T. Jones was falsely in his testimony before the committee.

That he (Ballinger) only took the job as land commissioner because Roosevelt and Garfield practically forced him to accept.

That when he appeared before the house committee in favor of the Cane bill—an action cited by the "prosecution" to show that he favored the sale of Alaskan coal lands rather than Garfield's leasing plan—it was not only with the approval, but even at the request of President Roosevelt.

THE LIE FOR GLAVIS

Ballinger denied that Glavis had ever said to him that the Love report on which the Cunningham claims were clear listed was unreliable because Love was likely to be influenced by his candidacy for marshal in Alaska.

"Glavis' statement that he told me this," the secretary said, "is absolutely untrue."

Ballinger said his appearance before the house committee in favor of the Cane bill which provided for the sale of the coal lands on a graduated scale instead of their leasing without the approval of President Roosevelt. He said Roosevelt told him at one time when the secretary showed him his annual report favoring this system:

"Well, when Garfield and Pinchot see that, they will go clear up to the roof, but I guess the proof is strong enough to hold them."

JONES A "KNOCKER"

Ballinger said that he had heard favorably of H. K. Love, formerly a special agent but that his hearsay knowledge of P. T. Jones, another special agent, "was not entirely favorable."

Love was a witness for Secretary Ballinger at the hearing; Jones appeared for the "prosecution" and gave evidence distinctly unfavorable to the secretary. The witness said Jones was guilty of "knocking."

"He knocked his own brother-in-law. I think my lack of confidence in Jones has been justified in his actions before this committee," Ballinger said.

Explaining his "clear listing" of the Cunningham claims as commissioner in January 1908, the witness said that he and chief of the field division, Schwartz, looked over Love's report, made August 2, 1907, and decided that it was favorable to the patenting of the claims, there being no protest in the records.

Would Do It Again

"I wish to say right here," the witness interjected, "that I believe that those claims should have been clear listed on the record in the department. If I were called upon now to pass on the claims, with the same record before me I would order that they be clear listed."

"I assume all responsibility for clear listing the claims. I never had a single one of the Cunningham claimants as clients; I had no interest in the cases in any way."

Teddy Was Glad

President Roosevelt greeted him with characteristic warmth, he said, when he arrived in Washington. "I'm mighty glad to have you here," Ballinger testified. Roosevelt said, "and I have not any excuses to offer for taking you away from Seattle. Any man who can clean up Seattle as you did, can clean up the land office."

Will Think It Over

Before Ballinger took the stand, Attorney Brandeis renewed his request that the Attorney General be asked to produce drafts of his "summary" of the Glavis charges. The committee blocked his request through Brandeis declared the necessity for having these papers was imperative before he could cross examine. Chairman Nelson said the committee had decided to hear arguments.

LA FOLLETTE IDEA CARRIED IN HOUSE

Madden Amendment to Ry. Bill Providing for Physical Valuation Is Passed by Big Majority

THIRTY FIVE G.O.P.'S INSURGE

With Tremendous Support Amendment that Strikes at Watered Stock Is Rushed Through

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 29.—The house today by a vote of 130 to 67 adopted Representative Madden's amendment to the railroad bill, providing for a physical valuation of railroads. An unusually large number of insurgents joined with the democrats.

The Madden amendment authorizes the interstate commerce commission to ascertain the value of all property of every common carrier in the United States.

Representative Townsend (R., Mich.), Mann (R., Ill.) and Kennedy (R., Ohio.) bitterly opposed the amendment.

The insurgents who voted with the democrats in favor of the amendment were: Hubbard, Haugen, Pickett, Woods, Good, Kennedy and Kendall of Iowa; Murdock, Campbell, Anthony and Madison of Kansas; Cary, Cooper, Lenroot, Morse, Kopp, Nelson, Kusterman and Davidson of Wisconsin; Poindexter of Washington; Austin of Tennessee; Prince, McKinney and Madden of Illinois; Martin of South Dakota; Langley of Kentucky; Crumpacker of Indiana; Morgan of Missouri; Norris, Hinchshaw and Kincaid of Nebraska; Lindberg, Volstead, Davis and Stearnson of Minnesota.

THE NETHERLANDS GREET ROOSEVELT

(By a Staff Correspondent of the United Press.)

ARNHEM, Netherlands, April 29.—After a four hours' ride through the most beautiful country they have yet seen, Colonel Roosevelt and family arrived here at noon today. There was an ovation for the colonel at every station.

Awaiting the Roosevelts at the station were two of Queen Wilhelmina's automobiles in which they were driven to the Het Loo palace of the queen, a short distance from Apeldoorn, seventeen miles northeast of Arnhem. The reception by the queen and her consort, Prince Henry, was unusually cordial.

At 3 o'clock the Roosevelts motored to Apeldoorn and at five o'clock they took a special train for Amsterdam. A dinner will be given in honor of the Roosevelts at the Queen's Amsterdam palace to-night, at which the burgomeister will preside. There will be forty guests.

At 11 o'clock the party will leave for The Hague and remain there until Sunday night.

TWO ARE KILLED IN FAMILY FIGHT

DALLAS, Texas, April 29.—Two men were killed and several wounded at Hempstead, Texas, late last night as the result of a duel between two brothers-in-law. The men, Myron Shannon and Clarence Pool, met at the station of the Houston and Texas Central railroad and immediately opened fire on each other. Both dropped dead. A passenger train had just pulled into the station and Sheriff Perry and two passengers, whose names have not been learned, were wounded. More than twenty-five shots were exchanged. James Shannon and Wm. Pool, the brother and father respectively of the dead men, were injured.

HARMON CONGRATULATES KERN

COLUMBUS, O., April 29.—Gov. Harmon today telegraphed congratulations to John W. Kern, Indianapolis, who yesterday was nominated democratic candidate for U. S. senator from Indiana.

"I felicitate both you and the party," he says. "In war the greater honor is to the volunteer but in peace it is to the drafted."

TRAIN IS DITCHED

DECATUR, Ill., April 29.—Thirty passengers on Wabash train "Banner Blue Limited" were near death late yesterday afternoon when the flyer turned and plunged into a ditch at Saunemin, near Forrest. Fifteen were injured and it is considered miraculous that no one was killed. Mrs. William E. Chandler, Michiwxax, Ind., was badly cut on the head. No cause is given for the accident.

TO TAKE STRIKE VOTE

NEW HAVEN, Conn., April 29.—Ballots were forwarded to all telegraphers on the New York, New Haven and Hartford railroad this afternoon with instructions that the operators vote on the questions of a strike on the entire system.

JOHN W. KERN

Former Vice Presidential Candidate Who is Keeping Indiana Democrats Guessing Today as to Whether he Will Run For U. S. Senate.

LEAVITT TO STOP WIFE'S WEDDING

Says He'll Do that and Get Children, but Bryans Seem Not Much Alarmed

COLUMBUS, Ohio, April 29.—William Homer Leavitt, the painter, who is here exhibiting his painting of "The Last Supper," today made preparations to leave for Fairview, Neb., to prevent the wedding of Ruth Bryan Leavitt, whom he declares has never been divorced from him.

"I'll have my two children if there is any law in the world that will help me," he reiterated today, "and if preventing the marriage is the only way to get them I'll be there to prevent it."

Leavitt has not yet recovered from his surprise at the notice of his former wife's coming marriage to Reginald Owen, the British army officer.

Leavitt hotly denied the story to the effect that his father-in-law, W. J. Bryan, offered him $20,000 not to contest any divorce action Mrs. Leavitt might bring.

Bryan Is Silent

LINCOLN, Neb., April 29.—Wm. J. Bryan today declined to make any comment on the report carried in the news dispatches from Columbus, Ohio, that Wm. Homer Leavitt would come to Lincoln to prevent the wedding of his former wife, Ruth Bryan Leavitt, and would bring suit in the courts for the possession of the two Leavitt children.

Leavitt's Talk Wild

Relatives of the Bryans in Lincoln, however, scoff at the suggestion that Mrs. Leavitt's discarded husband seriously intends any such action.

The decree of District Judge Cornish who gave Mrs. Leavitt a divorce, also gave her the full custody and control of the children, the father merely being granted permission to pay them an occasional visit. Artist Leavitt has never availed himself of this privilege, although the divorce was granted a year ago last January. The Nebraska law permits a divorced person to remarry after a lapse of six months, which disposes of Mr. Leavitt's contention that his ex-wife cannot again wed until after two years.

Bryan Supported Her

At the trial of the divorce hearing Mrs. Bryan and Mrs. Leavitt both swore under oath that but for frequent cash gifts from Mr. Bryan, Mrs. Leavitt and her children would have lacked the necessities of life.

CREEL ACCEPTS

NO MORE BATTLE TALK FOR TAFT

He will Not Read Anybody Out of the Party on His Trip Through the West

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 29.—President Taft on his western trip which starts tonight will not read the insurgents out of the republican party. In fact there will be no political sensations in any of President Taft's speeches. He will say nothing to incur displeasure.

When he gets west of Pittsburgh his most dangerous topic will be "conservation."

In addition to having a desire to accept into the party any one who wishes to come, President Taft is greatly pleased with the action of the insurgents in offering to support his legislative program in the house and senate.

The president will leave for Buffalo accompanied by Secretary of State Knox and Representative D. S. Alexander. Secretary Knox will also go to Pittsburgh with the party, where Sunday and Monday will be spent. At Pittsburgh the party will be joined by Count Von Bernstorff, the German ambassador, who will go as far as Cincinnati for the May festival.

Tuesday will be spent in Cincinnati and Wednesday St. Louis. The party will return to Washington Friday morning.

ROLLER-ZBYSZKO MATCH CALLED OFF

CHICAGO, Ill., April 29.—At a late hour this afternoon the Zbyszko-Roller wrestling match was called off. Dr. Roller was taken to a local hospital suffering with a bad case of blood poisoning. Joe Zbyszko, a blood poisoning, was substituted for Roller, whose illness is indirectly due to an injury received in his recent match with Mahmout.

MARTIN WANTS TO GET AT FACTS

Colorado Man Serves Notice that He Wants Action on His Friar Lands Fraud Claim

ONE HAND WASHES OTHER

He Claims Sugar Fraud Fines were Practically Handed Back to Trust in Philippine Lands

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 29.—Representative Martin of Colorado served notice on the rules committee today that he desires an early hearing upon his resolution charging the unlawful sale of Philippine friar lands to the sugar trust, through "improper influence working on the departments of war and justice."

Representative Martin said today in an interview:

"General Edwards and his assistant, Major McIntyre of the insular bureau, have now admitted that Poole, the alleged purchaser of the San Jose friar estate, was only an agent and that the money was put up by Henry Havemeyer and two others.

"At the very time the government was carrying on prosecutions against the sugar trust for customs frauds, it was negotiating with the heads of the sugar trust through Attorney General Wickham's former law firm of Strong and Cadwallader of which Henry W. Taft is a member, to give it a foothold in the Philippines.

"It is true that this law firm after laying the wires for the friar land sale, secured another firm of attorneys to pull them, assigning as reasons, the relationship between the firm and the administration and the fact that discretionary action on the part of the government was involved.

"These facts shed new light upon efforts to prevent the indictment of the 'higher ups' in the sugar trust."

EDWARD FEELS MONARCHY TOTTER

LONDON, April 29.—Emissaries of King Edward are working strenuously today among the liberal and conservative leaders to have them compromise the "lord's veto" question.

Only such a compromise as the king seeks will prevent Premier Asquith from asking the creation of enough liberals to put the "lord's veto" resolution through the upper house. And when the premier does that, the mischief will have done, because the king will have to give his answer immediately.

His majesty after keeping almost wholly clear of politics for a lifetime will have to proclaim himself definitely a liberal or a conservative and from the moment he does so he knows the party he displeases will work for the abolition of the monarchical system.

TEDDY IN "DAY COACH"

(By a Staff Correspondent of the United Press.)

AMSTERDAM, April 29.—Crowded into an ordinary day coach Col. Roosevelt and family made the short run from Apeldoorn to Amsterdam this afternoon, arriving at 6 o'clock.

A special train had been ordered for this trip, but it did not materialize and the colonel good naturedly accepted the regular coach and spent an hour mingling with Dutch travelers of high and low degree.

FIND COX DIAMOND.

NEW YORK, April 29.—There is great joy this afternoon at the Kaiserhof, the famous Broadway restaurant, because Boss Geo. B. Cox, the millionaire republican leader of Cincinnati and Ohio, has found his diamond. Manager Paul Henkel smiled for the first time since Monday and is preparing to reinstate "Owgoost," the night washroom boy, who had been under suspicion. "Owgoost" will receive his back pay and then some.

FOR STATE RIGHTS

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 29.—A bill to "prohibit interference with commerce between the states," was introduced today by Senator Clay (D., Ga.) and is intended to make it unlawful to use the mails, telegraph or telephone to make contracts for the purchase of cotton or farm products where the property is not delivered. It is similar to the Scott bill now pending in the house.

WEAVE TANGLED NET ABOUT HYDE

Spots on Body Show Plainly, Says State, that Swope was Victim of His Poison

LAWYERS GET BIG FEES

State Admits Special Attorneys Get $15,000; Paxton Says He Wanted Hyde Cleared

KANSAS CITY, Mo., April 29.—Following the testimony of R. B. Mitchell, the undertaker who cared for the bodies of Col. Thomas H. Swope and Chrisman Swope and who testified that the body of Chrisman Swope was marked with numerous red spots, attorneys for the state have intimated that they will seek to prove this as conclusive evidence of cyanide of potassium poisoning in endeavoring to convict Dr. B. Clark Hyde of murder.

Half a dozen undertakers and assistants testified today that they did not believe Col. Swope's body had been tampered with in the vault or that any one had entered the catacomb as the defense contends.

Georgia Compton, a seamstress, and Leonora Copperidge, a negro maid, told of being stricken with typhoid fever after the Thanksgiving dinner at which Hyde was present.

The colored girl gave evidence favoring the defense in telling of her sister having had typhoid about six months before the "Hyde epidemic." The waste matter from the negro cabin, was thrown in a vault, she said, which was later cleared by a servant who drew water for family drinking purposes. The defense contends that the family may have become infected with typhoid in this manner.

Death seems about to again invade the trial.

At noon Judge Latschaw received a telephone message that Mrs. Wm. Beebe, wife of Juror Beebe, was in a critical condition from an operation.

The surgeons do not believe she will survive. A Marshall was specially deputized to take Beebe to the hospital to see the dying woman.

TAKE WAGE JUMP OUT OF THE PUBLIC

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 29.—Action was taken by western railroads today to increase freight rates classes of commodity except cense that will result from the recent agreements with employees for higher wages and shorter hours.

The trunk lines west of Chicago filed notice with the interstate commerce commission of increases ranging from ten to 22 per cent on all classes of commodities except cement, coal, grain, livestock, hay, lumber, salt and a few other things. The increases go into effect June 1st.

TO PREVENT WAR

VALPARAISO, Chile, April 29.—Chile took further steps today to prevent the threatened Peru-Ecuador clash by notifying Peru that she cannot view such a war indifferently and informing Ecuador that Chile will not give her assistance in the event of war. It is believed here that war would already have been declared but for the warning of Chile.

FIRE THREATENS CITIES

SPOKANE, Wash., April 29.—After an all night battle with fire which swept a 25 acre lumber yard the combined fire departments of Sand Point, Pen d' Oreille and Kootenai fought to defend those towns from destruction today. ## SLAUGHTER THE EVICTED HEBREW

More Russian Atrocities Occur and Name of Kieff Is Again Painted with Feverish Blood

APPEALS MADE TO NATIONS

Secretary Knox and British Foreign Office Receive Petition from New York for Aid

BUCHAREST, Roumania, April 29.—The Dimincatu today prints dispatches from Kieff stating that hundreds of Jews were massacred there yesterday by the Russian peasantry. Women and children suffered death and injury with the men, the dispatches state, until the last of the Jews had either been killed or had fled the city.

The expulsion of Jews from Kieff began on April 23 and was to have been completed by yesterday. The work was supposed to have been done under official supervision. In order to allay public clamor the Russian authorities announced on April 24 that the expulsion edict had been modified and that most of the Jews would be allowed to remain. This was shown to be a gross misrepresentation.

Story Is True

NEW YORK, April 29.—Dispatches received today by the Jewish Daily News tell of the brutal expulsion yesterday from Kieff of 2,500 Jewish families. The dispatches say the Jews were treated with utmost barbarity but do not mention the deaths reported in the United Press dispatches from Bucharest. However, the American Jewish committee has received advices from the American Jewish Relief society, confirming the news dispatches.

Seek for Aid

The committee immediately sent an appeal to Secretary of State Knox requesting him to intercede in behalf of the Jews. A similar petition has been forwarded to the British foreign office by the Jewish community of London and the English Foreign office has already instructed the British ambassador at St. Petersburg to sound the czar's government.

JEFF STILL SORE

ROWARDENNAN, Cal., April 29.—A slight leg strain, aggravated by handball playing yesterday and soreness resulting from his boil, prevented Jeffries from doing any heavy work today. He ran about two miles on the road and then went fishing. The big fellow expects to resume training in heavy work next week.

Papke is training hard for his fight with Joe Thomas in San Francisco on May 14 and promises to set a fast pace over the 25 round route.

NIC GOETTSACKER ON TRIAL TODAY

Nic Goettsacker, who was arrested by the police, charged with robbing the Murphy saloon on the North side, is on trial before Judge Brindley this afternoon. The man he saw in the saloon had his back turned as he went by the place.

EXTRAVAGANCE OF AMERICANS

That Is Debate Subject;
Play Cast and Track
Schedule Are Now
Announced

"Resolved, that the American people are too extravagant," is the question to be debated by the Wendell-Phillips Debating society tomorrow night at their weekly meeting. C Schriver and A. Rupp will sustain the affirmative, while A. Skemp and C. Figgie uphold the negative. A spirited debate is expected, as considerable importance is attached to this question.

The Lincoln-Douglas will also debate a live topic, their question being, "Resolved, that the right of suffrage should be granted to the women." L. Cunningham and R. Scott will uphold the affirmative of this debate, while A. Emerson and E. Ferris will argue in favor of the negative.

In addition to the debate, A. Boschert will deliver a declamation and G. Renner will speak on the English political situation. Both of the societies extend cordial invitations to the public, and everybody who comes will be sure of a welcome.

Between the Acts
The cast of characters for the senior class play entitled, "Between the Acts," to be given commencement week, has been chosen by Mrs. Ross, who is coaching the players. A strenuous tryout was given all the candidates, and only those best fitted for the parts were chosen. The cast is as follows:

Dick Comfort ..... Herbert Moss
Mrs. Comfort, his wife ..... Carol Cotton

Mr. Meandor, Dick's uncle ..... Oscar Swennes

Mrs. Meander ..... Helen Anderson
Harris, a servant ..... Wm. Crosby
Sally, a servant ..... Stella Sheeley

Track Team's Dates
Track dates for the high school team have been announced as follows by Manager John Young:

May 7, city meet.
May 21, interstate meet.
May 28, interscholastic meet at Madison.

June 4, ward school meet.
June 11, interclass meet at the high school.

No admission will be charged for any of the meets to be held in the city with the exception of the interstate meet, which is to be held on May 21. Because of the large cost of this contest, a small entrance fee will have to be charged, but everybody will get his money's worth, as the best track teams in this vicinity have been invited to compete. Outside of the big meet at Madison, this is the feature attraction of the season, and one which no one should miss, as over fifty of the best teams in the nearby states have been invited to come. It is expected that this year's contest will be even better than those of the past two years, which have met with so much success.

AND THEN THEY ALL "DUG DOWN"

A small German woman cautiously approached the door of the county judge's office.

"Kennen sie Deutsch sprechen?" she asked with a broad grin.

"No," replied Judge Brindley, "I can't talk Deutsch. You can talk English can't you?"

"Nein, nein," she said with a negative shake of the head, the grin broadening.

The magistrate scratched his head. "Let's see," he ruminated, "you come along with me," and he led the way across the corridor to the office of County Treasurer Weimer.

Meanwhile a goodly crowd of county officials were attracted and when the sleek little German woman had them all gathered about the interpreter, while she still wore the broad grin, informed them what she wanted was to sell them all a ticket on a lottery of a gold watch for the benefit of her church society.

"But how would I know if I win?" asked Judge Brindley through Treasurer Weimer.

"Oh, but maybe you don't win," came back the interpretation.

It was candid at least so they all "dug down" for a ticket.

Regular umpires will be assigned to the series. Ollie Anderson will probably be one of the indicator holders to work.

"PUNISHING" A NATION.

The recommendation of a Portage postmaster by President Taft speaks for itself. It is eloquent of the possibilities of machine rule in the hands of a man who has failed to convince the public that his obesity goes no higher than his cravat. The appointment of six Wisconsin postmasters in a few days, every one of them in opposition to the advice of the congressional representative, all because the Wisconsin men declined to vote for his pernicious tariff bill, is an evidence of unfitness for office that cannot fail to be convincing. Think of an executive "punishing" legislators because they decline to submit to dictation by him in his capacity as administrator of the nation, when the most serious aim of the constructors of the constitution was to keep the legislative and executive departments of government separate and distinct. However, we advise the president to "get even" while it is possible. Four years is a short time in which to punish a whole nation.

THE IRON HAND

Down in Milwaukee the street railway company has just given its employees, "voluntarily," the second increase in wages within a little more than a year, the motive doubtless being to ward off a strike and prevent the unionism of their establishment. The steel trust has recently given an increase in pay and is considering pensioning its employees, for similar reasons. Each, in its own field, is a trust, and to protect monopoly from unionism these steps have been taken. But nothing like that in the meat trust. The entire nation has arisen to protest against artificially created high prices of meat; congress is investigating; the department of justice is probing; a meat boycott is on in the land; editorials that would roast the meat are singeing the packers, and what of it? Any tactful side-stepping? Any effort to appease?

No! The packers are all same Patten. They sit back and "boost" prices. They are going to "make us like it." Read this table found in the Pioneer-Press, showing meat prices from Feb. 25 to April 8:

Week ended—	Beef	Lamb	Mutton
Feb. 25 . . .	$ 9.16	$13.33	$10.22
March 4 . . .	6.16	13.62	11.36
March 11 . . .	10.06	14.43	11.41
March 18 . . .	10.18	15.15	12.70
March 25 . . .	10.78	16.22	13.70
April 1 . . .	11.21	17.77	14.57
April 8 . . .	11.08	17.50	14.10

As the St. Paul paper says, the packers' trust prefers the iron hand to conciliation. That is the way of the butcher monopoly.

THEY SAW MARK TWAIN
(By Rev. Sam McKee.)

In the fall of 1886 a little group of students from the theological department of Princeton university went to New Haven to witness the Yale-Princeton football game. They had the forenoon to look around in and among the sights they chose to see was the home of Samuel Clemens.

Arriving at the gate of the Clemens home, they began to banter one another, seeking some one who had the nerve to take the lead. Finally by some lot the ill fortune fell upon Rev. James Lapsley McKee, at present located in Wichita Falls, Texas.

Mr. McKee was of small stature, peculiar looking but with a great vein of independence and a keen sense of humor. He took the lead and at the door presented a card to the butler with the assurance that he would take but a moment of Mr. Clemens' time.

Mr. Clemens appeared, his clothing and hair in characteristic disorder, and calmly surveyed the little group. Mr. McKee explained that they were from Princeton and that they were seeing the sights and thought that their trip would be a partial failure unless they could see Mr. Clemens and that they only wanted to look at him.

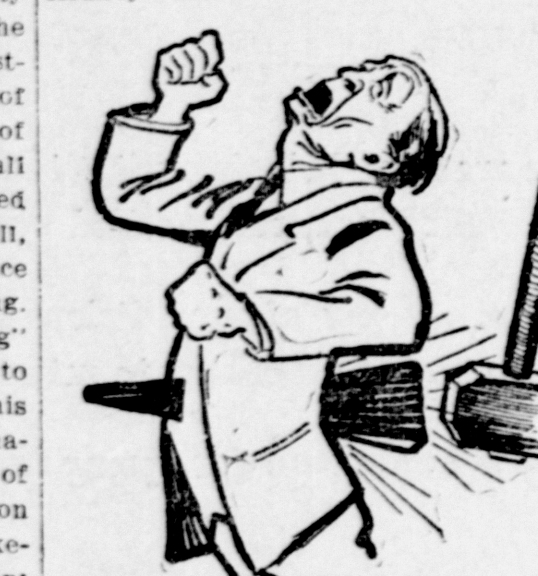

Mr. Clemens laughingly answered, "Well, you have had your wish and there is nothing left between us excepting that I am sorry that I can't invite you in, but it is dinner time and there is only one piece of pie, Good morning."

FOR THE THIN AND SCRAWNY

Samose Will Make You Plump and Rosy, Says O. T. Erhart

If you are getting thin, you are sick, although you may not know it. If you are losing weight steadily, there is something wrong that needs looking after. If you have always been thin it doesn't follow that you are sick, but you may not be healthy. You cannot be strong if you are thin.

The only way to increase the weight and gain health and flesh is by using Samose, the standard flesh-forming food and tissue builder. It mingles with the food you eat and is assimilated so that all the flesh-forming and tissue building elements of the food are retained in the system. This explains the great value of Samose.

O. T. Erhart sells every package on a genuine guarantee to refund the money if it does not do all that is claimed for it. Sent postpaid on receipt of price, 50c.

SPOTLIGHTS

FAMOUS PLAY SUNDAY

An aristocratic southerner of the old school, Joshua Middleton by name, is left at the death of his wife with the problem of selecting husbands for his two beautiful daughters, "Tempest" and "Sunshine." The young ladies have decided opinions of their own worth, and look with scorn upon the attentions shown them by the youths of the village. Julia, better known as "Tempest," is a black haired, fiery tempered young girl of uncertain disposition who will resort to anything if she but gains her own aim and ends, in consequence of which innocent parties are made to suffer for the guilty. Fannie, known as "Sunshine," is the direct opposite of her sister, being a lovable golden haired girl of laughing, sunny disposition, who will suffer untold agonies rather than unjustly accuse another of deceit and hypocrisy. Joshua Middleton throws up his hands in despair at the complications which arise from his efforts at match making.

The scenery is beautiful, everything used in the presentation, being carried by the company. The costumes are quaint and pretty, the gowns being of airy summery stuffs, faded in the fashion of 1850, which is the period of the play. Beautiful southern melodies are introduced throughout. The story is both strong and interesting and is relieved with much comedy. "Tempest and Sunshine" is one of the big successes of recent years and no one who enjoys a first class play, presented in a first class manner, should fail to see the dramatization of Mary J. Holmes' delightful novel, "Tempest and Sunshine," to be seen at the La Crosse theater Sunday, May 1st.

AT THE MAJESTIC

An act of more than usual merit, which is attracting much attention among the lovers of good music in the city, is the singing act of the Renee family at the Majestic theater this week. The selection proves to be one of the most meritorious and pretentious acts in vaudeville ever seen in this city. The family consists of Monsieur and Madame Renee and the three winsome children, all having good voices and histrionic ability of merit. The singing is done in five different languages and proves to be about the most interesting reproduction from comic opera that has ever been heard in this city. The act played a week at the Bijou theater but because of the limited stage room, the beautiful hangings could not be displayed. At the Majestic with its large and roomy stage, the special scenery of the act can be shown to the best advantage, adding much to the act which could not be appreciated by the audiences that witnessed the Renees at their last appearance here.

Madame Renee is truly an excellent singer having a voice of marvelous sweetness and with a carrying power that is wonderful, considering the lack of harshness. Her range is a marvel to the listeners.

The last scene, showing the camp of an American army, with tents stretching away into the distance with mounted cannon shown to advantage and with a sentinel pacing back and forth, appeals more to an American audience than the other four. The accompanying maneuvers are good to look upon and the singing is effective. The little sentinel is killed by an enemy's bullet and his little comrades cover him up with the American flag in a manner that brings tears to the eyes of many in the audience. The little fellow however soon lets you know that he is not dead, for when the song is over and the tremendous applause greets the singers, he crawls from under his shroud to receive his share of the hand clapping.

Ransom's Reformation

A few years ago there was a shiftless colored boy named Ransom Blake, who after being caught in a number of petty delinquencies, was at last sentenced to a short term in the penitentiary, where he was sent to learn a trade. On the day of his return home he met a friendly white acquaintance, who asked: "Well, what did they put you at in the prison, Ransome?" "They started in to make an honest boy out'n me, sah?" "That's good, Ransome, and I hope they succeeded." "They did, sah." "And how did they teach you to be honest?" "They done put me in the shoe shop, nallin' pasteboard outer shoes fo' leather soles, sah."—Salt Lake City Herald.

Laws Must Be Enforced
Today I rose at 4 o'clock
To scan the morning sky
For Halley's comet, which I read
Was scheduled to pass by.

I saw it from the garden fence.
But, ah! its head was pale;
Its ancient brilliancy was lost,
And drooping was its tail.

"O, comet, why so pale and wan?"
I cried in accents pleading.
It said, "Just now an airship cop Arrested me for speeding!"
—Gertrude McKenzie in Woman's Home Companion.

A Clever Stroke
Turning defeat into victory is the achievement of genius. This example, gleaned from the London Daily Mail, illustrates the adroitness with which it is sometimes done.

An eminent lawyer was once cross-examining a very clever woman, mother of the plaintiff in a breach-of-promise action, and was completely worsted in the encounter of wits. At the close, however, he turned to the jury and exclaimed: "You saw, gentlemen, that even I was but a child in her hands! What must my client have been?"
—Youth's Companion.

Part of the Scheme
"Oh, Willie," exclaimed little Elsie, "what did you open that oven door for? Don't you know that will spoil the cake mamma's baking?"
"Sure!" replied Willie, "an' if it's spoiled she'd let us eat all we want of it."—Catholic Standard and Times.

A Helpful Suggestion
"I tried to get a chance to speak to you at church Sunday," said Mrs. Oldcastle, "but the crush was so great that I couldn't push through to where you were."
"Yes, wasn't it awful?" replied her hostess as she flicked a bit of dust from the Gobel tapestry. "All the common folks in town seem to want to crowd into our church lately. It's too bad they ain't satisfied to stay where they belong. How did you like the sermon?"
"Well, as a sermon it was fairly good, but I do wish Dr. Goodman would quit splitting his infinitives. I try not to let it make me nervous, but I can't keep from being shocked every time he does it."
"I never let them kind of things bother me, but that's where the Episcopalians have the advantage of us. If our preacher would wear a long robe he could split them and you'd never notice it."—Chicago Record-Herald.

The Lazy Member

Mayor Sheehan of Elmira was ridiculing the pretensions of a political opponent.
"He takes," said Mayor Sheehan, with a smile, "too much credit. He reminds me of the Cayuse farmer. This farmer came home one night from a banquet and, throwing himself down in a rocking chair before the stove, he sighed.
"I'm about tired out. Be the cows in the barn?"
"Yes, Adoniram," said his wife.
"Hosses fed and bedded down?" asked the farmer, and he took from his pocket a cigar with a gilt band about it.
"Yes, Adoniram."
"Chickens ain't locked up, though, be they?"
"Yes, Adoniram, long ago."
"Wood chopped for mornin'?"
"Yes."
"Ducks picked and wagon wheel mended for tomorrow's market?"
"Yes, Adoniram."
"The farmer lighted the cigar, yawned and said:
"Well, then, just hand me the Farm Journal and draw me a jug of Elder, Maria. I'll turn in soon. Farming's beginning to tell on me."—Albany Journal.

VIRGINIA OF THE AIR LANES.

BY HERBERT QUICK
COPYRIGHT BY JONES-MERRILL CO.

The Virginia was half a mile from the air-ship before the crew of the latter had time to assure themselves of her safety. The great aeronaut had not changed her course, but was still cracking on at the height of her speed toward Richmond—like a whale at which a swordfish had made a vicious slash and missed. The Virginia went astern as well as athwart the course of the other craft, and as she sheered to starboard, the aeronaut and the aeronaut sped from each other at the sum of their two speeds—perhaps four miles a minute. The people on the latter must have thought the other gone for ever, when an astounding thing happened. The aeronaut wheeled about and gave chase—nay, she gave chase so swiftly that she swelled visibly in her swift overhauling of the aeronaut. In a time, so short that it seemed like a breath, the Virginia, on a level now with the other's deck, came in close astern, then sheered off and deliberately ran around the big Condor. She stood on her course at full speed. As a falcon might describe circles about the head of the hawk, the Virginia went about the Condor. As she crossed the bows a cry went out from the great ship's engine-room—a cry of tingled fear and astonishment—astonishment that any aerial craft dared lay herself across a speeding Condor's bows, fear of a collision and the dread which comes to those who see themselves in the power of another. Why did this new craft so come about them? It was some new engine of aviation—that was sure. And with such incredible speed and such unheard-of mobility, what more profitable trade could open to her than the aerial hunt and spoiling of the "dirigibles," with their passenger lists of millionaires?

So as Carson came up on his second circumnavigation of the Condor,

There are some wrongs in the book of Fate
That human laws cannot abate;
There are some crimes so black and base
That God Himself cannot erase.
—Munyon.

THE highest law, in my opinion, is Love. Its children are charity, sympathy and forgiveness. It teaches justice and holds high the lantern of hope. But proper statute laws could quickly modify and eventually eradicate many wrongs. The first is ignorance of the laws governing the human body. By our false modesty or false notions we speak of certain organs in a shame-faced manner. As a result, children, especially daughters, are brought up in ignorance of the anatomy of the human body illustrated in every particular on blackboards before every child in our public schools. I would have the general organs as freely discussed and understood as the hands or feet. It is the mysterious that excites passion. It is the novelty and the uncertainty that lead men astray. I would have every man pass a medical examination before marriage. I would prohibit wedlock to every man or woman who was afflicted with any disease that could be transmitted. Further, I would not permit a pure woman to enter into wedlock with a roue or a young man with libertine proclivities.

Through false modesty men and women often disregard the calls of Nature; their bowels become clogged and their systems poisoned. Children are allowed to go to school and sit all day without a movement of the bowels, which deadens the intellect and undermines the constitution. I would make it the duty of every teacher to see that the child's bowels are moved daily, for the further I investigate the cause of disease the more convinced I am that constipation is the cause of more ailments, of more suffering, of more crimes, of more poverty, of more unhappiness than all other causes combined. It is the mother of Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Biliousness, Liver Affections, Blood Impurities, Heart Affections, Rheumatism and Kidney Affections. I am receiving hundreds of letters from people who have been cured or benefited by the use of Munyon's Paw Paw Laxative Pills. These little sugar-coated pills are unlike any other cathartic that has ever been offered. They act so gently, yet so effectively, that they amaze even the most sceptical. They seem to coax the liver into activity. They start the secretions of the stomach and bowels, so that all the food received into the stomach is readily digested. They enable the bowels to extract all the nourishment from the food, sending out good, rich, red blood into the system, and then in a natural way evacuate the lower bowel, keeping the stomach and the intestines wholesome and sanitary. I want every dyspeptic, every person who suffers with indigestion, or any liver ailment, all those who have pimples or skin eruptions, who have sallow complexions, who are troubled with dizziness or constipation, to try these little Paw Paw Pills.

They are sold in all drug stores in two sizes, ten pills for 10 cts., or 45 pills for 25 cts.

For making fine, rich, or plain food, equally valuable and saving.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER

Indispensable For Home Baking

there stood at the rail of the big air-ship two or three men with guns, who made threatening gestures and shouted to him to stand off or they would shoot.
"What ship is that?" cried Carson. "None of your damn business!" was the reply. "You stand off or we'll shoot!"
"Shoot, if you dare!" cried Carson. "Don't you see that I can go above where you can't shoot and rip your gas-bag in perfect safety? Come now, answer my question. Why, confound it, if I wanted to do you any harm, don't you see you're in my power? Don't be silly."
Something in the boy's tone reassured the aeronaut.

"This is the Daedalus of Spokane," was the reply. "What devilish thing is that?"
"The Virginia of—of Carson's Landing in Alabama," replied Theodore.

"You will pardon us for our abrupt descent to your level," said Craighead suavely. "Ordinarily, the Virginia prefers a higher plane. We were strictly in nubibus a moment ago, and on materializing we found ourselves descending on you like a duck on a June-bug. We busted one of your suspension cords—for which we are sorry; but the gods bump into things when they come down from Olympus."

"Whose aeronaut is that?" asked the man who seemed in command.
"It's mine," said Theodore; "I built her."

"Well," said the man on the other deck, "you've got the world by the tail; and if you need money to swing it, just apply to Calvin J. Fry of Spokane—if you've got clear title to the mechanism."

"Thank you," said Theodore. "I thought you were an acquaintance. I think we'll leave you, now."
"But wait," said Mr. Fry. "Let me handle your foreign rights. I can get next. I know the Japanese foreign minister; and China's looking for something like that. Hold on—Hutton, will you let a mechanical devil's darning-needle like that leave the Daedalus behind as if anchored? Hold on, please—"

But the Virginia, gently increasing her speed, left the hustling Calvin J. Fry gesticulating far out of hearing.

"That, to originate a locution," said Craighead, "ought to hold them for a brief period. Looks as if they were back-pedaling."

"I will find them," said Carson, evidently meaning something else, "if they have hidden her in the farthest cave of that thunder cloud."

"Highly improbable, doesn't ye know," suggested Craighead, "that they should select such a demerit insular place for the young person. Doubtless we'll run across 'em in New York. By the way—dinner! I have the honor to report that the ship is without grub, and is starving!"
"I shall not stop," said Theodore, "this side of New York."
"Very well, sir," said Craighead, "I shall have my boot heels. Doubtless I shall do very well with them. I suppose you see that we are butting into weather, dead ahead and on both bows?"
"Certainly. It's the area of local storms."

Past Richmond, they left the domed capitol at Washington far to port, passed between Baltimore and Dover, and directly over Philadelphia, where Carson made a wide circle above the vast aerial harbor, scanning the berths for a huge silver aeronaut of the Condor type—but finding none. It was growing dusk, and the west and northwest were ramparted with towering thunder-heads, quivering with lightning, toward which Carson hurried the Virginia like a bullet. The town-studded suburban region of New Jersey swept under them as if drawn by swift mechanism; and the harbor of New York lay beneath, alive with shipping. The lights were already burning, and the far-spreading Babylon of the modern world hung like a fairy dream from the foreground to the farther rim of the concave cup of the earth. The castled marge of the city stood, incredibly lofty, clear to the water's edge, reared so high in air as to challenge the air-ship itself in altitude. Carson was amazed and stunned. He had never seen New York, and his ideas were all inadequate to the actualities before him. The streets flashed into sight as the Virginia passed into position permitting a view of the bottom of one metropolitan canon after another—flashed into view as long lines of arc-lights and gorgeous electric signs—a perfectly unimaginable tangle and jungle of lights of all colors; and then the soaring craft would pass on, the streets would be snuffed out by the tall buildings—the illuminated roofs and towering cliffs of lighted windows becoming a great plain of glimmering constellations. The boy was afraid—the huge city, roaring up at them like a ravening beast struck him with terror. It was so unreal, so sinister, so like a gorgeous nightmare of feverish human achievement, that it seemed unthinkable that it could hold for him ought but danger and struggle, and, perhaps, defeat.

NEW FEATURES IN PERRY MATCH

Ohio Authorities Tender the Use of Full Equipment for National Rifle
Competition

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 29.—As a result of the recommendations of the National Board for Promotion of Rifle Practice, which have been approved by the secretary of war, the national rifle matches at Camp Perry, Ohio which will be held next August, beginning Monday, August 22, will present many new features of great interest to the shooting profession. The National Board met in Washington in January with nineteen of the twenty-one members present. They were: Assistant Secretary of War Robert Shaw Oliver, president; Gen. Wm. P. Hall, U. S. A.; Capt. H. G. Learnard, U. S. S., recorder; Lieut. Commander Leigh C. Palmer, U. S. N.; Gen. Bird W. Spencer and Gen. P. Farmer Wanser, New Jersey; Gen. Lawrason Riggs, Maryland; Gen. George H. Harries, D. of C.; Gen. Carl A. Wagner, Mich.; Gen. George W. Wingate and Gen. Charles F. Roe, New York; Gen. C. A. Kelley, Colorado; Gen. James A. Drain, Washington; Gen. Elliott C. Dill, Maine; Gen. E. C. Young, Illinois; Col. A. B. Critchfield, Ohio; Col. John Caswell, Mass.; Col. Roy Hoffman, Oklahoma; and Maj. Claude E. Goddard, Pennsylvania. It was agreed that the restrictions in regard to preliminary shooting on the range, in force last year, should be rescinded. The matches of the Ohio State Rifle Association and the National Rifle Association of America, will be held prior to the national matches under arrangements to be made between these associations and the war department. The Ohio authorities tendered the use of Camp Perry and

equipment and the board gave a vote of thanks to the governor for the same. The equipment includes the mess hall and this year it is expected the mess will be placed under the direction of a regular army officer, congress appropriating $12,000 for the messing of the competitors.

Evans is Executive Officer

Col. R. K. Evans, who has been executive officer of the last three national matches has been selected by Secretary Dickinson as executive officer for 1910 and the rules were amended to provide for two assistant executive officers, one of them to be from the organized militia.

The national board sustained the action of the executive officer in disqualifying the naval academy team at Camp Perry last year, but incorporated in its proceedings a paragraph from his report in which Col. Evans says: "The executive officer avails himself of this opportunity to state that there is nothing in this incident which can reflect in the slightest degree on the honor or good faith of the Naval Academy Team." Col. Evans also paid a high compliment to the team. The resolutions and quotation were forwarded to the secretary of the navy.

Devise Rules Relating to Arms

To prevent any possibility of a similar misunderstanding in the future the rules relating to the arms used in the matches were revised so as to provide that "the trigger pull must always be at least three pounds. Rifle to be used as issued by the Ordnance Department, without alteration or modification of any kind or character whatsoever. A violation of this rule in any respect shall disqualify a team or competitor." A new provision authorizes the Ordnance department to select star-gauged rifles "of as high grade as can be produced," for the use of team and individuals in the national matches.

All the ammunition companies have been invited to submit bids for furnishing 1,000,000 rounds of .30 caliber and a competitive test will be had and the ammunition which is the best will be selected for the matches. The Ordnance department will compete with the private companies as last year. The allowance for preliminary practice was slightly increased.

Targets are Changed

A great advance was made in the rules governing the distances and the shooting in the matches. The 800 yard range was cut out entirely from the national team and individual matches. Instead of the rapid fire being on a bulls-eye target, Target "D" will be substituted for Target "A." Target "D" carries the figure of a man prone and a shot in the figure will count five, a shot below the figure four, and others 3 and 2. The competitors will be lined up and fire by odd and even numbers, the former firing first. The pieces will be loaded and when all are ready a signal will be given and the targets will rise and remain in position for 20 seconds, and then disappear. As the targets come up the competitor will sink to the ground, with one knee on the ground and an elbow on the other knee. The five shots must be fired or other wise each unexpended cartridge will count as a miss, and firing may be continued from the time the target appears until it disappears. Any competitor having a defective cartridge, a disabled piece or more than five hits on his target must fire again. Only "battle-sights" may be used in rapid fire.

Skirmish Runs

A similar change has been made in the rules for the skirmish runs. The skirmishers will be assembled at a point more than six hundred yards from the targets. The magazines will be filled and one cartridge loaded there from. Firing will begin at 600 yards and the targets will be run up and continue in sight for thirty seconds during which two shots are fired, the competitor firing at will. The targets will then be withdrawn and the competitors advanced to 500 yard line and two more shots will be fired the targets appearing and disappearing as before. Three shots will be fired at the 400 yard and 350 yard firing point and at the 300 and 200 yard points five shots are to be fired. At all ranges except 600 yards the battle-sights will be used. As this will be the first time that disappearing targets have been used in the national matches the innovation will attract wide-spread attention in this and other countries as it will furnish an unusually severe test of marksmanship. The match will be the more interesting from this standpoint of the spectator because of the changes.

Telescopic Sight Forbidden

The use of permanently affixed micrometers, orthoptic eyepieces, telescopic sights, spirit levels, temporary shades, or other devices is forbidden but competitors may use field glasses or small telescopes such as might reasonably be carried as a part of a soldier's equipment. They may also use a micrometer and individual score book. The use of such lubricants as are not injurious to the rifle will be permitted.

An important change of a technical character has been made by the national board in substituting the word "revolver" for the word "pistol" wherever found in the rules. This marks the passing of the "pistol" from military shooting. The ammunition for the national revolver match will be selected on the same lines as that for the rifle matches.

The classification in the national team match will be the same as last year but based on the results of 1909. No change was made in the prize list but the provision requiring the team making fifth place to drop two men and the sixth team to drop one man was stricken out

COUNTY FAIR DEAD TO SELL PROPERTY

This will No Doubt be the Result After the Meeting Tomorrow Afternoon

That the La Crosse county fair will be abandoned and the fair grounds offered for sale will be the decision reached at the meeting of the members of the La Crosse County Agricultural society tomorrow afternoon, is the opinion of some of the most prominent members of the organization.

An effort has been made to organize a stock company for the purpose of continuing the fair at West Salem, but not enough stock could be raised to warrant the carrying on of the project. Thereupon a meeting was called, which will be held at West Salem tomorrow afternoon when it is expected the affairs of the society will be wound up and the property offered for sale.

CIRCUS AGENT TO COME HERE SOON

Louis A. Oyen announces that indications are that La Crosse will have one of the big circuses this summer, either the Ringling or the Barnum & Bailey show. He has received word from the circus headquarters that an advance agent will visit La Crosse in the near future to make an investigation of the conditions here with reference to the license question. It is not known which one of the shows the agent will represent. Last year the Ringling show failed to show here because of the $200 license, which remains unchanged.

COLLERAN HOME IS TRANSFERRED

A warranty deed was filed today transferring for $1.00 and other considerations the Colleran property corner of Thirteenth and State streets, from Mary C. Grimes to Dr. W. M. Colleran, her father. The property formerly was the Luther Peck home and was transferred previously by Peck to Carletta Colleran.

FEELS THE PULSE OF DEMOCRATS

Michael McHugh of the town of Holland was in the city yesterday feeling the pulse of democrats relative to his candidacy for sheriff on the democratic ticket at the fall primaries. Mr. McHugh says he has not as yet decided whether he will become a candidate, and his visit to La Crosse was merely to look over the ground.

ROW OVER HEARST

NEW YORK, April 29.—Thomas T. Williams, business manager for W. R. Hearst, climbed on a table and shook his fist in Mayor Gaynor's face as the latter denounced W. R. Hearst at the joint banquet of the Associated Press and the American Newspaper Publishers' association at the Waldorf Thursday night. Immediately cries of "Put him out" (referring to Williams) arose from all quarters of the hall.

SOFT SHELL CRABS FOR MRS. CARTER

CLEVELAND, Ohio, April 29.—Mrs. Leslie Carter, who contemplated a three night engagement here, is ill of acute colitis. Dr. J. P. Quayle said today she was in no immediate danger, but will be unable to leave the hotel for at least two weeks. Mrs. Carter's sudden attack is attributed to poisonous poison from soft shell crabs.

WOMAN JOINS IN SUIT AGAINST PLAYWRIGHT

MRS. MARY QUIRK

Charges of plagiarism are made against Joseph Medill Patterson in a suit filed in the United States circuit court here by Eugene Quirk, a Chicago newspaper man, and Mary I. Quirk, who demand $50,000 damages, charging that the defendant used the main theme of a novel entitled "Drifting," which they wrote, for the foundation of his play, "The Fourth Estate," now being produced at the Studebaker theater in Chicago. The plaintiffs in the action ask also an injunction restraining the production of the play.

NEW YORK, April 29.—The time and place for holding the next international aviation contest will be decided late this afternoon at a meeting of the Aero club of America. It is probable the meet will be held at Belmont Park on Long Island.

DAM IS FINISHED

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 28.—That the work on the great Roosevelt dam is about completed was evidenced by the closing of the cement mill at Roosevelt, Ariz., today. The engineers' report shows that the government was saved more than $650,000 by the mill.

STREET CAR STRIKE ON AT COLUMBUS

COLUMBUS, O., April 29.—Disorders inaugurated the general strike begun early today by the street car men's union. A few cars manned by non-union motormen and conductors were run hap-hazard over a few lines this morning but they were poorly patronized. General Manager Stewart of the street car company announced today that he contemplates a petition to the governor for militia.

The trouble began with the cutting of trolley ropes and blocking of cars by sympathetic teamsters. Then after stoning a car at Broad and Leonard streets, a mob of strikers and sympathizers pushed aside the police and wrecked the car. The trouble arose over the refusal of the company to reinstate men discharged for activity in organizing the union.

And nothing pleases a girl more than her ability to keep a young man guessing.

HELP THE ENUMERATOR

It is believed by the enumerators that the city of La Crosse will show a population of 21,000 if all the persons are enumerated and the business men of the city are anxious that a full count be made. In order to accomplish this it is necessary that everyone who knows he has not been enumerated, help the count by filling out the coupon given below and sending it to Supervisor of Census Frank Winter.

There has been a great shifting in population within the last few years that only the closest work and the utmost endeavor on the part of the enumerators will enable the city of La Crosse to show its full count. Every citizen is vitally interested in the city showing a substantial gain and by a united effort this can be done. It is very important to promptly answer all the questions asked by the enumerators, giving each member of the family and the hired help.

Are you enumerated? If not notify the supervisor of census at once and you will be counted. Are you loyal to La Crosse? If you are see that you are enumerated. Are you a booster? See that you are enumerated and boost La Crosse. With a complete enumeration La Crosse the second or fifth city? You can help answer this question by being enumerated.

Mr. Winter announces that he has been authorized to extend the period of enumeration not to exceed five days owing to the inclement weather conditions in La Crosse and he says he will in all probability make this extension.

Have You Been Counted?

If not, or if you have any doubt, fill out this coupon and mail to Frank Winter, Supervisor of Census, McMillan Building, La Crosse.

On April 15, 1910, I was living at the address given below, but to the best of my knowledge I have not been enumerated there or anywhere else.

HE TRIED MURDER FOR PROMOTION

Death Coming to Russian Officer who Tried to Kill Off His Superiors to Get Jobs

VIENNA, April 29.—Lt. Hofrichter, an officer in one of the crack Austrian regiments, has confessed that he sent poisoned candy and poisoned medicine to his superior officers more than a score in number in the hope that by their death he would be promoted. Hofrichter probably will now face a firing squad.

A dashing young officer in one of the kaiser's crack guard regiments, Hofrichter aspired to become a major. Promotions go slowly in the show regiments and he faced long service before he would win a higher rank.

It was shown that every officer in the regiment of a rank superior to Hofrichter's received a box of candy or a "new patent medicine," liberally treated with cyanide of potassium.

The fact that Hofrichter did not receive any of the poison and that he was ambitious caused suspicion. Detectives proved Hofrichter bought the boxes in which the poison had been sent and handwriting experts declared he addressed the packages.

Hofrichter at first denied his guilt. He could not have been put to death without a confession under the military law and life imprisonment seemed his fate until it was officially announced today that he had confessed.

CIVIL ACTION MAY FREE GUS KRIEBICH

If Richard Kaiser, Stabbed by Defendant, Fails to Recover Damages, the Case May End

MAY CALENDAR IS OUT TODAY

West, Dindinger and Hogan Cases will Be First to Be Tried Next Tuesday

Upon the result of the civil action for damages of Richard Kaiser against Gustav Kriebich rests the question of whether Kriebich will be prosecuted on a charge of "assault without regard to human life."

Both cases are scheduled for the May term of circuit court, which opens here next Tuesday, the calendar for which was issued today. District Attorney James Thompson declares the evidence in the preliminary hearing of Kriebich, charged with stabbing Kaiser, was not so conclusive as to insure conviction, and that if the civil case fails to develop evidence he believes sufficient to convict Kriebich on the criminal charge, it may not be prosecuted. If the evidence is sufficient the case will be pushed. There was indication in the preliminary hearing, it is said, that the self defense evidence of Kriebich was rather strong. Kriebich stabbed Kaiser in a roadhouse saloon, and Kaiser has since been in the hospital in a serious condition.

Few Criminal Cases.
There are only seven criminal cases on the calendar, and Attorney Thompson expects to have them finished in a couple of days after the opening of court. Ed. L. Hogan, charged with holding up Chris Peterson, Rudolph Dindinger, charged with desertion, and Frank West, charged with insulting a North side minor girl, will probably be tried early in the session. Other criminal cases are Augustus Moloney, charged with false pretense in the sale of farm lands; Gustav Kriebich, charged with assaulting Richard Kaiser; Charles Gungen, malicious injury, and George Martinek and George Twedt, charged with bastardy.

There are 43 jury cases scheduled and 28 cases for the court to decide.

The jury cases are as follows: W. A. Bright and L. A. Wakefield vs. Thos. P. & Wm. F. Benton; Geo. J. Brown vs. Ray S. Reid; Robert E. ## Enjoy Your Meals

By Simply Eating a Little Pleasant
Tablet After Each of Them

A Tablet Digests A Meal. Trial
Package Free

When digestion is perfect the fluids necessary to this process come naturally to the aid of the stomach. They are of right proportion and do their work speedily and well. When indigestion and dyspepsia are prevalent, these same juices come slowly if at all, are weak and insufficient or are filled with strong acids and alkalies.

When such a condition exists each meal is a hardship upon the digestive organs. The meal should strengthen the juices, but on the contrary it weakens them, so that man by the very act of eating causes conditions to arise which of themselves bring him pain and loathing for the next meal.

By eating one of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets you mix the tablet with your saliva and it goes into your stomach a strong, vigorous fluid, many times more powerful than the natural digestive juices. These tablets are made up from natural vegetable and fruit essences and are composed from Hydrastis, Golden Seal, Lactose, Nux Aseptic Pepsin and Jamaica Ginger. There is the formula and one grain of it will digest 3,000 grains of food in any stomach. Besides digesting the food it will give the blood the power to enrich the digestive fluids so after a time nature will take care of itself. Though you have no stomach trouble one of these tablets after each meal is a powerful assistance to nature and is an excellent habit to make.

Go to any druggist and ask his opinion of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets. We will abide his answer if he be an honest man. They sell for 50c per package. Send us your name and address and we will send you a trial package by mail free. Address F. A. Stuart Co., 150 Stuart Bldg., Marshall, Mich.

MATILDA DREES TELLS OWN STORY

Voluntarily Testifies in the Denison Divorce to Vindicate Character After Mad Woman's Slander

Miss Matilda Drees, formerly of La Crosse, who recently went to Chicago to testify in the divorce case of S. B. Denison, in which she had become involved through the multifarious suspicions of Mrs. Denison, and whom Mrs. Denison failed, in court, to identify with her husband or her troubles in any way, today writes The Tribune as follows:

"Editor Tribune—I requested the people here to be given opportunity to testify and came here of my own free will, Judge Windes of the circuit court giving me an opportunity to testify. Not a particle of evidence appeared in support of Mrs. Denison's slanderous charges against me. I have been employed by Mr. S. B. Denison, one of the principals in the case, as stenographer and typist since the summer of 1908, in St. Louis, Missouri, where Mr. Denison was one of the official court reporters. In December of that year, when Mr. Denison was called to Chicago as official reporter for John E. W. Wayman, state's attorney for Cook county, Illinois, and opened an office there, I was given employment with other typewriter operators and stenographers here and have worked for him ever since with the exception of the time I have been home in La Crosse. My relations with Mr. Denison have been only in the nature of employer and employee, and I had nothing to do with Mr. Denison's marital troubles, as he had secured a legal separation from his wife a year before I met him or was employed by him. His bill of separate maintenance was granted in St. Louis, Missouri, and on his establishing a residence in Chicago, he filed a suit for absolute divorce and to annul his former marriage on the ground of fraud.

"Mrs. Denison has made trouble for every employee Mr. Denison has had, and I am no exception. I have no interest in the suit other than clearing myself of any aspersions against my character. I was not in Chicago at the time Mrs. Denison said she attacked me in company with Mr. Denison, as you know, although the story was given considerable space in the Chicago papers, for the sensation is caused on account of Mr. Denison's connection with one of the prominent offices of this city, which is more in the limelight than any other, on account of its graft investigations."

BALLINGER SAYS THEY ALL DO LIE

ments on the matter by counsel on both sides later.

Says Garfield Lied
Ballinger this afternoon continued the explanation of his appearance before the house committee in support of the Calk bill.

"Mr. Garfield knew all about the matter," he said. When Garfield testified before the committee he declared that he had not authorized Ballinger's appearance in support of the bill. Ballinger's testimony today took direct issue with this and he contended that if Garfield had not approved of this action he would have refused permission.

NINETY DEGREES THIS AFTERNOON

At 2:30 o'clock this afternoon the temperature was 90 degrees at the weather bureau, which comes near being up to the record for this time of the year. The indications are for cooler weather tomorrow.

DID MR. TAGGART "PUT ONE OVER?"

Marshall Men Fear Kern
Meant "No!" and Tom Knew it when He
"Quit"

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., April 29.—Refusal today by John W. Kern either to affirm or deny the report that he will accept the nomination for United States senator gives strength to the suggestion of the Taggart machine politicians that their leader has outwitted the progressives of his party in yesterday's convention.

It is argued that Mr. Kern would not knowingly be a party to a trick, but his declination today to discuss the Marshall endorsement plan, or to accept the nomination given him, causes some democrats remaining here after adjournment of the convention to realize the possibility that the party may yet be left without a candidate before the legislative meets.

Mr. Kern twice declared he could not be a candidate for senator in the convention—once in a speech on the floor and later from the platform. Kern then left the hall.

When Tom Taggart arose and exclaimed that the "old guard today is on the scrap heap," his followers passed the signal for a Kern avalanche and on two succeeding ballots the Kern vote increased until Marshall men joined in making the endorsement unanimous.

"Never before have I known Tom Taggart to admit defeat," said one democrat who is familiar with Indiana political history. "If Kern is determined to hold to this pledge not to enter the race, and this is known to the machine, Tom Taggart has won over his enemies in a most daring and treacherous coup. With the convention ended the progressives are united in their praise of Kern as a fit candidate for the party." As consistently suggested by the United Press during the convention campaign, Mr. Kern always was regarded as a man upon whom both factions would agree in convention. Friends of Gov. Marshall hope Kern will accept the nomination.

HUGHES MAY NOT BE CHIEF JUSTICE

Unless President Taft Ignores Precedent He will Remain Always an Associate Judge

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 29.—Unless President Taft breaks the precedents of nearly a century and a half, Charles Hughes will remain on the supreme bench as an associate justice, and not be elevated to the chief justiceship if that place becomes vacant.

There have been rumors that Gov. Hughes accepted the associate justiceship on the understanding that he would succeed Chief Justice Fuller in the event of the latter's retirement or death. Perusal of the records of the supreme court today disclosed that there is only one precedent for the elevation of an associate justice and in this case it did not go into effect. On Sept. 24, 1789 President Washington sent to the senate the nominations of five men to compose the court of last resort. John Jay was made chief justice. Among the associate justices was Wm. Cushing. On Jan. 27, 1796 Jay having resigned, President Washington named Cushing for the chief justiceship. The nomination was confirmed on the same day. Cushing, however, declined the place, stating he preferred to remain on the bench as an associate justice.

WILL CONDEMN RIVER PROPERTY

Proceedings Are Started
Against Mrs. H. C. Hart
in the Park Controversy

In order to procure all the land along the river front from Pearl street to the La Crosse river for park purposes, condemnation proceedings will be started against Mrs. H. C. Hart, who owns a piece of land west of the Hart property on corner of Main and Front streets. A special meeting of the common council will be called some time next week when the condemnation proceedings will be started. The Harts will fight the case on the ground that the land is required in order to carry on their business at that place.

"The city has obtained the consent of all the other property owners along the river front between Pearl street and the La Crosse river," said Mayor Sorensen, "and this proceeding is for the purpose of condemning the small piece of land owned by the Harts. I understand that the case will be fought in the courts."

It was originally planned to take in all the property to the Mississippi wagon bridge, but owing to the fact that several of the property owners in the block below Pearl street protested against giving up the title to their land, the park commission decided to abandon its plans of improving that portion of the levee.

Mayor Sorensen said the date of the special council meeting had not been decided but it will probably be held next Thursday. Other condemnation proceedings for street openings on the north and south sides of the city will also come up at that time.

ONE WEEK MORE TO END TESTIMONY

State in Hyde Case May
Close by that Time;
Wanted to "Clear
Hyde's Name"

KANSAS CITY, Mo., April 29.—The greater part of the state's evidence seeking to convict Dr. B. Clark Hyde for the alleged murder of Col. Thomas H. Swope is now before the jury and the defense will soon be able to present its side. It is expected that Mrs. Logan O. Swope, sister-in-law of the dead philanthropist and mother of Frances Hyde, Dr. Hyde's wife, will take the stand today.

Unless the defense objects and is sustained by the court, Mrs. Swope will tell the whole story of how she claims Dr. Hyde, after eloping with her daughter and getting into the family, sought to do away with the heirs of Col. Swope's estate one by one, so that he might come into possession of the wealth through his wife.

The chemists and pathologists who were employed in the investigation after Col. Swope's death will then be called to tell of their findings. The state will probably not take up more than another week in presenting the remainder of the evidence.

During the examination of John G. Paxton, administrator of the Swope estate yesterday, it was brought out that three of the special prosecutors retained by the estate have been given fees of $15,000.

Paxton swore that in starting the investigation into Col. Swope's death he had hoped to lift the suspicion that surrounded Dr. Hyde and that he bore the physician no ill will.

ZELAYA ATTACKS KNOX DIPLOMACY

Nicaraguan President Does Not Mince Words in Attack on American Secretary

ROOSEVELT IS HIS FRIEND

Calls Teddy a Great Statesman and Compares Him to Present Regime in United States

NEW YORK, April 29.—"Intemperate, incorrect, vulgar and false in its foundation," is the characterization from ex-President Zelaya of Nicaragua, placed on Secretary Knox's severing relations with Nicaragua, according to Zelaya's brother-in-law Louis Coussens, who is in this city today arranging for "the vindication" of Zelaya.

Coussens is returning from Madrid where he arranged for the publication of a book by Zelaya entitled the "Revolution of Nicaragua against the United States," in which Zelaya reviews the events leading up to the uprising and bitterly blames Knox's diplomacy for most of the trouble there. After characterizing Knox as unjust and his note to the Nicaraguan minister severing diplomatic relations as astounding Zelaya says:

"In great contrast is this document with the telegram sent me by ex-President Roosevelt when the republics of Central America were in war against me at the instigation of Estrada Cabrera, president of Guatemala."

Zelaya calls Roosevelt "that grand statesman" and refers to him as "my friend." Coussens exhibited what he alleges is the last letter written by Leon Groce from El Capatola fortress, dated Nov. 16, 1909, which Coussens claims justifies the execution of Groce and Cannon.

Groce's Last Letter

The letter was written to Groce's mother but was retained for diplomatic reasons and was today made public for the first time. The letter read in part:

"Darling Mamma: This will be a terrible blow to you—the last words you will ever receive from your wayward son. I can't write much as I am too nervous and only have a few moments to live. I joined the revolution in Bluefields and was captured and sentenced to be shot to death. I will be executed together with another young man from Virginia, Leroy Cannon, and it will take place this morning. Now, mother dear, bear up. This is my fate—the results of war and disobedience to a loving mother. It is hard to be shot like this, but I will die like a man. Tell all good bye."

Coussens showed a batch of letters, telegrams and cables received by Zelaya from many sources. One cable from General Altschul, Nicaraguan consul at New Orleans, tells Zelaya that the United States and Guatemala are conspiring against him.

ORATORICAL CONTEST AT VIROQUA HIGH

VIROQUA, Wis., April 29.—A very interesting oratorical contest was held at the high school building last evening, the participants being six of the brightest young men of the school, Harry Blythe, Milton Davidson, Neil Rudie, Owen Snodgrass, Kenneth Smith and Alton Lindemann. The orations were delivered in a very creditable manner. The winners were, Harry Blythe, first; Kenneth Smith, second; Alton Lindemann, third.

A part of the evening's entertainment was a series of Yellowstone Park stereoscopic views shown by Prof. W. P. Calburn.

Elmer Marke had business at La Farge today.

At last night's meeting of the city council, John Weber, who has given excellent service as city marshal for the past few months, was re-elected to that position.

Attorney Henry Bennett and Dr. John Chase are in Chicago.

The seniors of the training school are given Friday to visit rural schools in this vicinity and get a glimpse of the realities of country school teaching. They will put in a full day, starting early in the morning, in order to arrive in time for the first class in the morning.

Frang Sargent of Coon Valley was here yesterday.

FUEL ALONE BARS TRANS-ATLANTIC FLY

DAYTON, O., April 29.—That the fuel supply problem is the only one standing in the way of an aeroplane flight across the ocean was the statement of Wilbur Wright, one of the inventors of the Wright aeroplane, today, in commenting upon Louis Paulhan's flight from London to Manchester.

Wright was enthusiastic in his praise of Paulhan, who, he said, might have been going yet if he could have carried sufficient fuel.

TURKISH TROOPS TO FIGHT INVADERS

Helps Baby's Bowels Free

Any mother with a child given to constipation should send her name and address to Dr. Caldwell and secure a free sample bottle of a remedy especially adapted to the cure of this trouble in children. There is no remedy on the American market today more widely used for this purpose than Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. It is in thousands of homes for just this purpose. It is the best child's remedy obtainable, and any mother having trouble with her children's bowels owes it to herself and the child to make a free test to see for herself whether these claims are justified. Thousands say they are, but you should find out for yourself, so send your address today for a free sample bottle. Then, after having used it, if you are convinced it is the remedy you need, do as other mothers are doing and go to your druggist and buy it in the regular way at fifty cents and one dollar a bottle. The dollar bottle is for families. Every household should have such a remedy at hand, as one can never tell when some member of the family will suffer from constipation, indigestion, liver trouble, sour stomach, sick headache, etc. Here you have a laxative that the youngest child can use with safety, and yet is effective on the strongest constitution. No child will refuse it, as it is very palatable, and it never gripes. Results are absolutely guaranteed or money will be refunded. You can see from the testimonials printed here and in other announcements how enthusiastic people are about this remedy. This should in itself prompt you to begin its use, but if you do not want to be put to any expense before being convinced then send to Dr. Caldwell for the free sample bottle. After that you will always have it at hand.

S.S.S. CURES BLOOD POISON

Every symptom of Contagious Blood Poison suggests a deeply poisoned condition of the circulation. No portion of the body is free from its contaminating influence, and its blighting effects are even stamped on innocent childhood if the ancestral blood is not rid of the infection.

Contagious Blood Poison begins in an insignificant manner, usually the appearance of a tiny pimple or sore being the only outward evidence of its presence. But down deep in the blood the treacherous virus is at work and in a short time the victim finds himself affected from head to foot. The month and throat ulcerate, skin eruptions break out, sores and ulcers appear on the body, yellow blotches disfigure the skin, the glands of the groin swell, and often the hair and eyebrows come out.

The only possible way to cure Contagious Blood Poison is to remove the cause from the blood. Mercury, Potash, etc., are often used with the idea that such strong treatment will kill the germs and thus produce a cure; but this is a mistaken idea—THE GERMS CANNOT BE KILLED; THEY MUST BE REMOVED FROM THE CIRCULATION. This is proven by the fact that there are thousands who took the mineral treatment for months, or even years, and when it was left off found the poison was still in the blood.

The ability of S. S. S. to cure Contagious Blood Poison comes from its blood purifying properties. It goes into the circulation and REMOVES every trace of the poison, makes the blood pure and healthy, and leaves no dregs of the trouble to break out later on, or to be transmitted to innocent offspring. S. S. S. is made entirely of roots, herbs and barks, each of which has a direct and specific effect in purifying the blood. S. S. S. is Nature's blood purifier, scientific and sure in its action, and so valuable are its tonic effects that the entire system is left in fine physical condition. Home Treatment book sent free. #### COVERED WITH SORES.

I was afflicted with a terrible blood disease, which was in spots at first, but afterwards spread all over my body. These soon broke out into sores, and it is easy to imagine the suffering I endured. Before I became convinced that the doctors could do me no good I had spent a hundred dollars, which was really thrown away. I then tried various patent medicines, but they did not reach the disease. When I had finished my first few bottles of S. S. S. I was greatly improved, and was delighted with the result. I regained my lost weight, became stronger and my appetite greatly improved. I was soon entirely well, and my skin as clear as a piece of glass. H. L. Meyers, 68 Clinton St., Newark, N. J.

CAVALRY ARRIVES AT SPARTA RANGE

SPARTA, Wis., April 29.—Lieutenant Prunty of the Fourth cavalry stationed at Fort Leavenworth and a detachment of twenty-five cavalrymen and train arrived in Sparta yesterday morning from Fort Snelling and will go to Camp Robinson today to camp and to await the arrival of the military board which will come here next week to pick a suitable site for the national rifle range on the Sparta maneuver tract and lay out the necessary lines. The military board consists of Capt. P. W. Farr, Fifth field artillery; Col. R. K. Evans, Twenty-eighth infantry; Capt. J. P. Ryan, Fifteenth cavalry, and Captain Clark, of the quartermaster's department. These officers are expected to arrive Monday and the detachment of cavalrymen were sent ahead to pitch camp, and in order that the officers might have the horses to ride over the range hills in picking the site for the rifle range on which the national tournaments will be held after this year and which will supplant Camp Perry, Ohio.

This detachment is the first body of troops to arrive here this year, and they traveled overland from Fort Snelling, taking one week in making the trip and pitching eight camps enroute.

CATCHES SLAYER IN NICK CARTER STYLE

CHICAGO, April 29.—Joseph Welcome, a paper hanger accused of killing Mrs. Marion MacLean in a rooming house on West Monroe street here, is under arrest today. He was captured by the police in melodramatic fashion.

Welcome has been hiding in the city since the killing. Yesterday he sent a paper hanger asking for financial aid in order to escape. The brother betrayed him to the police. The meeting place was in the rear of a big warehouse in the Illinois Central yards. Detective O'Hara, disguised in overalls and impersonating an engineer, strolled down the track at the appointed hour.

Welcome appeared promptly disguised in black beard and goggles. The pseudo engineer busied himself coupling cars. As Welcome came opposite he suddenly leaped forward and pointed a revolver at Welcome's head.

Welcome surrendered.

ARCADE BATTERY AIDS PICKPOCKET

NEW YORK, April 29.—If any well dressed stranger tries to interest Antonio di Martino of Brooklyn in the mysteries of electricity, he will be the victim of a vendetta that will make the Corsican brothers row look like a peace conference.

Antonio took a day off yesterday and visited the Bowers. He had a great time in a penny arcade until he bucked up against the electric battery.

"Pull it all the way out," advised a natty youth as Antonio took hold of the handles. Antonio did. He couldn't let go. While he stuck to the machine the natty youth relieved him of his pocket book containing seven hard earned plunks.

HOPPER STILL POPULAR

NEW YORK, April 29.—Twenty years of De Wolf Hopper's fun making along Broadway hasn't wearied the old town a bit, if the newspaper criticisms of "A Matinee Idol" in which he opened at Daly's theater last night is a criterion.

And if some people didn't think they knew quite so much they would probably know a lot more.

GETS A DOLLAR FOR EVERY DANCE

Duluth Polish Bride at Her Wedding Dances with 250 Men During Evening

DULUTH, Minn., April 29. — The champion Marathon dancer of Duluth is easily Mrs. B. Winneka, and she is a bride who established her right to the title at the celebration of her wedding.

She danced with each of the guests each of whom, according to a Polish custom, threw a dollar down.

The celebration began early in the evening and lasted until early morning, and when the dancing bride took account of the dollars she had collected she found $250.

The bride was an ironer in a laundry. Her maiden name was Steffles Rutka and she was married to B. Winneka.

RACE FOR CONTROL OF MISER'S ESTATE

COUNCIL BLUFFS, Iowa, April 29.—Living in a house, entrance to which was in the second story, reached only through a window and approached by a ladder, J. M. Shugart, a picturesque miser, who had resided for a quarter of a century in southwestern Iowa, dropped dead at Malvern while chatting with acquaintances in a store.

He was wealthy, although just how much money and valuables he has is not yet known. His history is so thoroughly a part of the country that Shugart had hardly died than a scramble was on for the legal right to handle his estate. This was on the part of bankers who know that Shugart died childless and without kin so far as the knowledge of those who know him best goes, and who realize that there is a neat profit going to accrue to somebody in the years that will have to ensue before the estate can possibly be settled up.

WANT BURKE TO LEAD THEM AGAIN

At the meeting held here resolutions were adopted asking him to enter the race, and great pressure will be brought to bear upon him to seek election again. Up to the present time he has refused to make any statement of his candidacy, but the democrats are hopeful he will soon issue a statement.

TRUCE REFUSED IN 'PHONE WAR

Overtures of the Bell Company Are Turned Down at New Richmond

NEW RICHMOND, Wis., April 29.—At a meeting of the stockholders of the St. Croix Telephone company, the new local independent company, another batch of concessions submitted by the Wisconsin Telephone company, the Bell interests in this state, were rejected and the local telephone strike started in this city Jan. 18 continues. On that date by agreement business men discontinued the local telephone service in their stores and offices. This was done simultaneously, when the receivers were taken from the hooks.

In the proposition submitted the Wisconsin Telephone company offered to reinstate the service immediately at the old rate, $2 a month for business telephones and $1 in residences, and to continue that rate for two years. It also offered to develop the rural telephone lines in the territory tributary to New Richmond, and to sell its local exchange with certain restrictions, at any time during the two years, at a price to be agreed upon. But the conditions attached to the offer and the further fact that many of the former patrons would not now take the service from the old company again at any price, led to the rejection of the offer.

MURPHY NO MATCH SHIFTY ABE ATTELL

NEW YORK, April 29.—Tommy Murphy's ambition for the lightweight championship will be nothing more than an ambition for a long time to come, according to those who watched the pride of Harlem's ten round go with Abe Attehl, the featherweight champion, at the Empire A. C. last night. The fight was even which was not so bad considering Attehl's cleverness. What disappointed Murphy's friends was his inability to produce a "bacom winning" punch.

He reached Attehl often enough but could not do serious damage.

FAST WORK OUT FOR LA CROSSE

Safford Sends His Men Through Rapid Afternoon's Practice; No Releases Till Monday

Yesterday afternoon the La Crosse regulars and recruits participated in a fast workout at the League park under the far reaching eye of Boss Safford, who says that he will soon have his team picked, releases coming after Sunday's games with the La Crosse Clothing company and Caledonia.

Just what the personnel of the team will be is a hard matter to decide and it will be equally hard to decide on men for several positions for which three or four candidates are putting up a merry fight. The men are rapidly rounding into shape and it is figured by the management that by Sunday the men should be in condition to display their ball playing ability to the best advantage.

Yesterday while going after a ball which he had missed, in a discouraged mood, Thomas, the catcher, made an ugly remark which the fans in the grandstand overheard. He was sorry for it a moment later and did his best to square matters. The fans look upon Thomas as a good promising catcher.

Honus played first base yesterday for the recruits and put up a good game although a little new at the position. Wals at second base is speedy and covers much ground and it would not be a surprise to see him on the team this year. Shorty Doll is expected to arrive in the city some time tomorrow and will at once get into a uniform for a workout. With Ward at first, Gregory, Wals and Schrimmer fighting for second, Connell at third, and Doll at short, the local team should have a stone wall infield this year. Just what will be done with these good men in the infield is a matter of speculation at the present time. Doll is assured a position, however, as he is a clever player. Connell is good at third, Doll's position last year, and it is expected that an infield shift will be necessary.

BROOKLYN, 10; BOSTON, 3
BOSTON, Mass., April 29.—The Dodgers defeated the Boston Doves here yesterday afternoon, 10 to 3. The Brooklyn team pulled off a dandy triple play in the seventh. Graham flied to H. Smith, who threw to Daubert, doubling Beck, who was headed for second, on the fly, and Daubert in turn shot the ball to McElveen, who tagged Sweeney, who was making for third. It was grand baseball playing. Score:

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., April 29.—The Giants won a great thirteen inning game from the Phillies, 5 to 2. Bugs Raymond was on the job, but where he came from no one seems to know. Anyway he pitched and won, though he did walk eight men. The locals tied it up in the eighth, getting two runs. After that there was nothing stirring until the thirteenth, when Schlie singled, Raymond fanned and Devore cracked out a safe one. Doyle drove both in with a double, and in turn scored on Becker's single. Seymour hit a homer over the fence in the second. Score: R H E

WASHINGTON, April 29.—The Red Sox tied yesterday's game in the seventh inning and it became a scrappy extra-inning match, which was won out in the twelfth by Lell-vit's smash to center when two were out and three on bases. ## NEW MANAGER OF WASHINGTON TEAM

JAMES MCALEER

Early this season Washington was seen at the head of the American league, a place the nationals reach about once in every five years. This sensation of leading a topnotch club has been borne by Jim McAleer, the new manager of the Washington team without any undue feeling, with every one else in the baseball world, that Washington isn't going to stay with the leaders very long. If there were a few more pitchers of the Walter Johnson type you would find Washington battling some, but there is but one Walter Johnson and he can't do four men's work. Therefore Washington stands a pretty fair chance of losing about three out of every four games.

The national capital is a city unique in the baseball world. It is one of the few towns that will support a losing team, and this is due doubtless to the fact that there are so many out of town visitors in Washington, at all times that crowds are drawn just for a peep at a big league game if the visitor happens to live in the bushes or because some

SCHARDT ALLOWS 8 HITS YESTERDAY

Local Twirler of Last Year in a Ten Inning Game; Brewers Defeat Minneapolis

Wilbur Schardt, who starred for the local team last year, yesterday pitched an excellent game for the Milwaukee Brewers, allowing 8 hits in ten innings, Milwaukee defeating Minneapolis by a score of 6 to 5.

With a perfect shot over second base, injected during the closing moments of the tenth inning of the engagement Harry Clark brought home the second victory registered by the Burghers since April 13.

Two Brewers were out and Jimmy Barrett was on third when Clark peeled off the clout that busted up the first overtime combat seen at Milwaukee park this season.

In passing, let us pause and give due credit to Clark and Barrett for victory achieved.

Barrett contributed four smashes, one a two-sack rap, and scored three of the six runs made, while Clark came across with a pair of tasty wallops that drove in a trio of the talies. The score: R H E citizen of a major league town wants to see his own team play.

Since the capital city was admitted to the league in 1902 it has held on to seventh or eighth place religiously. It was a sovereign right of the Nationals and there was disappointment when the club finished in sixth place in 1902, fully 50 points ahead of the seventh place Detroit team. But this was the first year, and since then one of the last two places has been held. McAleer has a hard task before him at Washington. His infield doesn't touch the others in the American league, neither does his outfield, while with the exception of Johnson, the pitchers all have something to show to make them look very good, although Charley Street is one of the best catchers in the game.

EAU CLAIRE PLAYER FRACTURES ANKLE

EAU CLAIRE, Wis., April 29.—H. Walbaum had shown up well during the practice hitting and running bases well, and his being laid up will be a loss to the team.

GOTCH AND O'KELLY SIGN

Arrangements have been completed whereby Champion Frank Gotch will wrestle Con O'Kelly, the Irish champion, in a finish match May 11, at the Dewey theater, Minneapolis.

O'Kelly is the Irish champion who has made a good showing against many of the best men in the country. He is a giant in stature, measuring 6 feet 4 inches and weighing 320. Tommy Ryan, the veteran pugilist, has taken the Irishman in hand with the idea of making a fighter of him. This match will be his last appearance as a wrestler.

COURT TELLS HER TO "TOUCH" HER HUBBY

CHICAGO, April 29.—Tight wad people who refuse to deliver any of the tinkling coin to loving wifey when the ghost walks, have received a solar plexus blow in the pocket book by decision of the municipal court of Chicago. Wives are permitted to "swipe" all the change belonging to their husbands that they can get their hands on and if hubby refuses to "come across," "Judge," he cried, "my wife robbed me in my own home. She got a boarder to help her and took $11 right out of my pants pocket. I want an injunction or something. She's got to cut that out."

"He has not given me any money to run the house with since the Lord knows when," said Mrs. De Kolkey, "so I just got a boarder to help me and took some."

"This is a plain case of robbery," said Judge Gemmel. "The next time he refuses to give you enough money for your support do it again."

Opportunity doesn't wait for the man who stops to rest.

He declared the government had withdrawn 27,000,000 acres of timber land and 12,000 square miles of commercial lands in Alaska, representing practically the entire fuel supply of the country.

About Diamond Purity
In the selection of a diamond, size is only one of many considerations. Purity of color and freedom from flaws are very important elements, as also are shape and style of cutting. The most important feature, we think, in buying diamonds is the source you procure them from. We buy direct from the importers, which enables us to give our customers the choicest gems without having to pay the fancy price.

The Care of the Refrigerator.
Too great care can scarcely be used in keeping the refrigerator perfectly clean. All crumbs should be removed and if liquids are spilled they should be wiped up at once. In summer, especially, frequent and thorough cleanings are required. Remove shelves and scrub with a brush in hot suds made by dissolving a tablespoonful of Gold Dust with a cloth or in the sunshine, if possible. Scrub all parts of the ice and food chamber thoroughly, even the inside of the door, with the hot suds; rinse in clear water, wipe dry and leave open to air. Scald waste pipe with boiling suds made from Gold Dust washing powder; scrub the drip pan and then replace the parts. The food chamber requires cleaning more frequently than the ice compartments.

TAFT'S SON GETS A MUD DUCKING

WINSTED, Conn., April 29.—Charles Taft, the president's son, at his uncle's school in Watertown, stood a ducking in the brook yesterday afternoon while being hazed by upper class pupils. Young Taft and several other students were tossed in the deepest hole in the creek and emerged covered with mud. Charlie bears now the nick name "the duck."

PAULHAN ALL IN AT END OF AIR RACE

LONDON, April 29.—Had Manchester been a quarter of a mile farther removed from London, Louis Paulhan might not have won the London to Manchester aeroplane race, the $50,000 and the worldwide fame that went with it.

Paulhan declared today that he was so near the end of his endurance when he brought his machine down at Manchester that he could not have gone another quarter of a mile.

"I wouldn't undertake such a flight again for double the prize I won," he said. "The public has an idea that it is not a difficult feat, because it is accomplished with lightning in the time allowance. The truth is the strain and anxiety I suffered were almost unbelievable."

"Had I been making such a flight purely for pleasure, with the rich prize and the honor of France not at stake, there would not have been this strain." Asked whether he intended try-

Folk who follow the river, who have heard the roar of the windmill in night and wind and held her straight between light and light with nothing but that beacon to ward off disaster, will appreciate the following stanzas by a La Crosse girl who knows the lure of the launch:

Scintillate, scintillate, globule vivific,
Fain would I fathom thy nature specific,
Loftily poised in ether capacious,
Strongly resembling a gem carbonaceous.

When torrid Phoebus refuses his presence,
And ceases to light us with fierce incandescence,
Then you illumine the regions supernal,
Scintillate, scintillate, semper nocturnal.

Then the victim of perilous peregrinations
Gratefully hails thy minute corruscations,
He could not determine his journey's direction
Were it not for thy bright scintillating protection.

SAY FAREWELL TO OLD SCHOOL HOUSE

Men of St. Mary's Congregation Give Supper in Building to Be Razed

The last entertainment and a farewell party was held last evening in the old St. Mary's school building which is to be razed to make room for the large handsome structure to take its place. The affair was given under the auspices of the Men's society of the congregation.

One of the amusing features of the entertainment was a millinery department, the head trimmer of which was City Attorney John F. Doherty, who wore a hat of latest design, trimmed with pink blossoms. Will Rossiter, the assistant, was gowned in pale green. George Flynn was the shopper. Ed Kelley took the role of "snake charmer." In one corner of the room and attracted much attention, Thomas Harrison was busy telling fortunes. Joseph Mischert was in charge of a booth where several interesting "sights" were witnessed.

After the visitors viewed the sights they were served with supper in the basement. The entertainment was novel and was a great success.

HEAR ADVOCATES OF LARGE LOCKS

Major Charles Keller Announces Meeting with Commission on May 9

The board of engineers for rivers and harbors has under consideration the question of the size of the lock to be built in connection with the proposed dam at Keokuk, Iowa. It has reviewed a report on this subject by the district officer, Major Charles S. Riche, and a number of letters from interested persons in reference to this subject. There appears to be a diversity of opinion among navigation interests regarding this subject, and some views have been advanced advocating a lock of very large dimensions.

Before submitting its recommendations, the board desires further information regarding the feasibility and probability of boats or tows of unusual size being used on the Mississippi river above St. Louis. With this end in view, those interested are invited to meet the board in St. Louis on May 9th, at 9:30 a. m., at the office of the Mississippi river commission, Liggett building, and present their views. While the board will gladly listen to oral arguments, important facts should be reduced to writing. Wisconsin Waterways Commissioner R. S. Reid of La Crosse will probably attend.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., April 29.—Gov. A. J. Pothier today wrote to Nelson W. Aldrich expressing regret over Aldrich's retirement and add-

FLOWERS MISSED ON MEMORIAL DAY

Memorial day will not be a day of flowers this year, the unreasonable weather having destroyed almost everything outside of the greenhouses. Hundreds of rosebushes have been damaged so that they won't bloom this year or have been killed. Lilacs were frozen while in almost full bloom. Snowball buds were frozen and it is not believed there will be an overabundance of blossoms.

BEAUTIFUL DRESSES FOR THE BRIDE AND HER BRIDESMAIDS

Wedding Gowns to Suit All Tastes—Preparing the Linen Chest Just as Important as Wardrobe

WHO is not immediately interested and alert at the mere mention of a trousseau, and what keen delight it is to revel in the great cedar chest among the fluff of laces and web-like linens. To pat this great soft bow and smooth out that tucked ruffle. One never tires of handling such dainties and the bride to be is in her fifth heaven of delight.

Then the table and bed linen is no longer a matter of minor importance, for my lady's bed is quite as elaborate as her dresser, sheets not only hemstitched but inserted with rare Clunies and other Irish laces that wear well, such as torchon and often embroidery, although she prefers having the embroidery worked into the sheet itself. Of course, the pillows are frilled and furbelowed to correspond.

While some people are superstitious regarding the wedding gown, it appeals to many to keep the gown intact to hand down to one's children, which certainly is a delightful sentiment. Others believe that good fortune will not continue nor come until the wedding gown is worn to shreds. Be that as it may, all brides love to have it made of such materials and in such fashion as would make it impracticable for other occasions, and these models were chosen with that in mind.

The Illustrations.

The first gown in the illustration is of deep cream liberty satin made over a princess slip of soft Sorrenta silk, made very plain with no ruffles, only four rows of inch wide ruchings edged in Valenciennes lace, the idea of this being to keep the lines soft and flat. The three piece skirt is drawn loosely over the hips wrinkling slightly below the waist and is adorned with the bands of Irish lace and seven chous made of cream satin ribbon, from the center of which spring sprays of myrtle. The bodice has a fichu of the satin bordered with a band of the lace and disappearing beneath a corslet of the satin. Two chous like those in the skirt are placed either side of the plastron which is made of the lace and half inch folds of the satin. The stock is quite high coming well up beneath the hair. The close fitting sleeves of lace are finished with frills of satin. The veil, which hangs to the floor, is of ivory white silk tulle arranged in a series of puffs caught with myrtle blossoms.

An Elaborate Dress.

The second drawing is of more ornate design. It is made of pure white liberty and trimmed with Venice insertion. The bodice is elaborately tucked being cut away beneath the insertions. The yoke is formed of lace, laid over a narrow fitted piece of the tucks which are intercepted by two inch bias folds slightly laid on like tucks over a band of lace which, in turn overlaps another inch tuck, these last two fitting down smoothly over the shoulder. The sleeves are tucked smoothly to the elbow where they are bound by a band of lace which releases it into a little puff finished with an inch wide heading, beneath which are long tucked sleeves. The girdle is of soft satin finished with a chou of ribbon and white wisteria. The three piece skirt is arranged in a graduated puffing held in place by a band of the lace and four chous of the ribbon and wisteria. The tunic is finished with a deep hem of the goods. The under dress is cut to hang in full masses with long narrow train. The bridal veil reaches to the end of the train and is arranged in two three inch headings massed behind a crown of wisteria sprays.

sleeves are treated in the same manner, the upper sleeves being mousquetaire. The pointed girdle is made of the charmeuse cut on the bias and laid in deep folds. The skirt is slightly gored and gathered, being trimmed with a volant of the lace garland and five nouettes of the tulle and flowers. The volant is high in the front, slanting down to the of the bolero was finished with points of Cluny like those on the skirt, being partially veiled by the frill of lace that outlines the yoke and is finished by a wide band of Cluny.

The idea of partially veiling a heavy lace with a transparent one is very smart and lends a very rich touch to a gown. Hand woven poncee, Cluny allover lace combined with insertion baby Irish and Radola ribbon and garlanded with tiny lace rosebuds with pink and blue centers make a very elaborate frock. The skirt is a simple gathered one cut in three gores. Just above the knees a pointed piece of the allover lace is fitted into the skirt, giving the effect of a graduated trimming. The girdle is of soft folds of radola of a wider width than the frills. The bodice is trimmed with two insertions of inch bands matching the allover lace and insertion on either side of the baby Irish. Several of the tiny lace roses are fastened into the lace. The yoke is of wide Valenin two puffs reaching to the elbow where it joins a deep cuff made of wide Cluny bands joined with the narrow insertion. It is finished at the wrist with a frill of the ribbon, and a row of rosebuds.

A large feather fan was carried by the bridesmaids, the fan being made of fluffy white marabout tied with long streamers of white satin ribbon.

New Shades and Fabrics.

While we still cling to the traditional pure white satin for wedding gowns there are other and newer silks that are most charming in their luscious creamy tone and rich folds.

The list is headed by a superb liberty satin with a high rich lustre of great beauty. It is called "Splendora" and comes in three widths; 36, 27 and 22 inches in width and costs as low as $1.25, the widest width being $2.50 a yard. Of a lighter weight but the same weave are Solenta and Superba satin, while more rich and relatively higher in price is what is known as Prema in 36 inch width at $2.00 a yard.

For the very practical minded bride who wishes to utilize her wedding robe for an evening gown, there are those old time shantung and Rajah silks, but in new loose weaves looking like hand woven fabrics. They come in exquisite tones of white, cream and pearl grey for bridal robes and in all the modish evening tones for less formal wear. For adornment there is the rich rose point, if one has no time-tinted family point to display. And old Alencon lace is available even in some shops, although the price is almost prohibitive. This lace is usually veiled in tulle or chiffon.

Cream Colored Bridal Gown.

One extremely handsome bridal robe seen at a recent wedding of a prominent society belle was loosely fitted princess made of rich, creamy Prema satin with no other adornment than a long scarf like piece of this old Alencon lace which was draped in such a way as to form a plastron over the bust and a little bell sleeve continuing down across the back to the left hip, where it fell in a beautiful cascade. It was veiled in the palest pink tulle that was almost imperceptible.

At a wedding for a bride who was just out of mourning for her father the prevailing tone was mauve, the bridal robe being the only white gown. It was a dead white satin with a court train that started at the top of a large box pleat that grew wider as it lengthened out into the broad train which was entirely covered by the bridal veil.

The mother of the bride wore a mauve mousseline de soie, princess, trimmed with brussels net and a moderately large hat of shirred tulle with two heavy willow plumes of orchid shades.

The attendants were gowned in palest mauve hand woven Shantung and gupure lace. The bridesmaids all wore large flat hats tilted at the sides and carried muffs of chiffon. The upper brim and crown was of deep purplish tones of mauve, the under brim being faced in the palest orchid tint. At the side of the crown were orchids of two shades, slightly superposed. The muffs were of pale orchid tulle over purple satin and adorned with a bunch of orchids from which escaped long streamers of tulle which floated down over the gown to the hem of the skirt, being draped up in a long loop and fastened to the girdle over at the left side, the ends floating out as they walked down the aisle.

DAINTY GOWNS FOR DAINY JUNE BRIDES

The third robe is developed in charmeuse, with undersleeves and yoke of quipure and frills of Valenciennes lace. The bodice is composed of a fichu terminating in a small bouquet of orange blossoms tied with tulle. A narrow ruffle of Valenciennes lace finishes the edge and is headed by a garland of orange flowers. The floor in the back. The veil extends well down over the train.

Bridesmaids Frocks.

Of no less importance and quite as pretty are the frocks worn by the bridesmaids, seen at a recent wedding up on Fifth avenue.

The wreathed one was fashioned of ment, cut in three points in front and back, bound in narrow liberty satin. It extended low over the shoulders, simulating a cap from beneath which the festoons of the sleeves escaped and caught up with rosebuds to the tight fitting sleeves, which are finished at the elbows with a deep frill of the Valenciennes lace. The top founce to the lower portion of the skirt. The lace is set in with baby Irish insertion on the edge of which is a narrow oulling of radola gauze ribbon. On the upper edge this oulling is sewed to the lower edge of the insertion, giving a tunic effect to the upper portion of the skirt. The garland of roses emphasizes the line of ciennes lace finished with the narrow insertion and a garland of roses, below which, covering the joining of the bretelle, is a frill of ribbon. The bretelle is shaped like the inserted piece on the skirt, fitting low over the sleeves. The lower edge is finished with baby Irish and a frill of ribbon. The three quarter sleeves are made

MAKING DOUGHNUTS IS NOT SUCH HARD, MYSTERIOUS FEAT

Here are Some Recipes that will Enable Anybody to Produce Good Ones at Small Cost

By JANE E. CLEMENS

WHY cannot you make good doughnuts? It seems so easy; and yet so many women think that dough-making is one of the mysteries which only a select few are initiated. Following are given several excellent recipes, those that our grandmothers and great-grandmothers used, down to the present up-to-date doughnut served with whipped cream and candied cherries instead of sweet cider.

To those who can obtain hop yeast this method is very simple. In the morning take two cupsful of the light bread sponge, before any more flour has been added. Take one pint of sweet milk and one small cupful of lard, and heat to the warmth of new milk; then add this to the two cupsful of sponge, with one cupful of sugar. Beat thoroughly, add enough flour to make a stiff batter, and set in a warm place until light, which should be in about two or two and a half hours. When light, beat three eggs and add, with another cupful of sugar, one teaspoonful of cinnamon, one teaspoonful of salt and one and one-half teaspoonfuls of grated nutmeg. When well mixed with the batter add enough flour until the dough can be kneaded as a biscuit dough, without sticking to the pan or molding board. Set back in a warm place for another two hours or until light; then, without kneading or adding flour, cut the dough into cakes about the size of a big black walnut. Put on a buttered tin, not too close together, set in a warm place for an hour, then fry in hot lard. It takes these doughnuts a little longer to cook through than it does a fried cake. For those who do not have hop yeast, set up first the sponge by using a yeast cake soaked in one cupful of warm water. Instead of two cupsful of light bread sponge, as previously directed, but after this proceed just as when the light sponge is used.

Another excellent recipe is to make a dough of one pound of flour, one-fourth pound of butter, three-fourths pound of brown sugar, rolled fine and sifted, one nutmeg, grated, one teaspoonful of ground cinnamon, one tablespoonful of brewer's yeast, and enough warm milk to mix. Set in a warm place to rise for an hour or until light; then form into twists or squares, fry in hot lard and drain on a sieve. To knead out the dough, spread some flour on your molding board, take the dough out of the pan and knead it, rolling it out into a large square sheet, about half an inch thick; take a jagging iron or sharp knife, run it along the sheet and cut the dough into long, narrow slips; twist these up in various forms and fry.

Sour Milk and Soda Doughnuts. Two cupsful of sugar, three eggs, a piece of butter the size of a walnut, two-thirds of a cupful of sour milk, one-half nutmeg (grated), enough flour to make a soft dough, a scant teaspoonful of soda and a pinch of salt. Mix thoroughly, roll out on the molding board, cut with a cake cutter, leaving a small hole in the center of each doughnut. Fry in hot lard until nicely browned. Take up, drain and roll in powdered sugar.

When you hear a man talk of the doughnuts his mother used to make you may be sure they were sour milk doughnuts, for her baking was done before baking powder was used so extensively.

Baking Powder Doughnuts

But of the baking powder recipes the following are the best: Mix, by sifting two or three times, two round-teaspoonfuls of baking powder with one quart of flour; beat two eggs, one coffee-cupful of sugar and one teaspoonful of rich milk, a pinch of salt and grated nutmeg to taste. Mix all together with enough of the flour to make as soft a dough as you can manage, reserving the rest of the flour for rolling out. Fry in hot lard, as directed with other recipes. Water may be used instead of milk, by using one teaspoonful of melted butter with it.

Baking Powder Doughnuts, No. 2.

To one cupful of sugar add two teaspoonfuls of butter, one-half a nutmeg (grated), and a pinch of salt. Cream well together and add two eggs, beaten without separating yolks and whites. Add one cupful of milk and about three cupfuls of flour prepared as follows: Measure one quart of unsifted flour and sift twice with two rounded teaspoonfuls of baking powder; use enough to thicken the batter sufficiently for rolling out, and use the rest for dredging the board. Roll out one-fourth inch thick and cut in pieces three inches long by two inches wide; make four one-inch gashes at equal intervals. Take up by running the finger in and out of gashes, and place into deep fat when just hot enough to brown a bit of bread in sixty counts. The dough should be as soft as could be handled. When nicely browned drain on coarse porous paper. When cool roll in powdered sugar and place in a covered stone jar.

Doughnuts With Whipped Cream.

Take two cupsful of flour, three-fourths teaspoonful of salt, three-fourths teaspoonful each of soda and cream of tartar, one-fourth tablespoonful of butter, one-half cupful of sugar, one-half cupful of sour milk, one egg, one-fourth teaspoonful of nutmeg (grated) and a little cinnamon. Sift the flour and put in a bowl with the salt, soda, cream, of tartar and spices. Rub the butter in with the fingers, add the sugar, then the well-beaten egg and the sour milk. Stir it into a soft dough and toss out on a well-floured molding board. Pat and roll it into one-fourth of an inch in thickness, then cut out the doughnuts and fry in deep fat, turning them as soon as they come to the top. When nicely browned on both sides lift by a fork passed through the hole in the center and drain on brown paper. When cool roll in powdered sugar. When ready to serve fill the center and pile daintily on top some whipped cream sweetened and flavored with lemon and vanilla extract. Put a candied cherry in the center of each and serve at once.

Novel Use for a Small Dolly

Anyone desiring a dainty hand-embroidered collar-bow at a small cost will find nothing better than a small Madeira work dolly, which can be bought at from 20 to 30 cents apiece in the linen department of any of the large stores. Gather the dolly through the center and fasten with a tiny knot of batiste or lawn. Six inches is the proper size. Select one with a small design inside the scalloped edge or with a design on opposite sides of the dolly. These little dollies are of excellent quality, both as to material and workman-

SIMPLE, CHEAP AND DAINY CARRIAGE ROBE FOR THE BABY

Easy to Make, Costs Little and Looks Pretty—How to Turn White Lace Yellow or Cream Color

By HELEN D. PURDY

For many young mothers who wish to make a simple and inexpensive robe for the baby: Take two and one-half yards of plain silkoline, three bolts of No. 1 ribbon, one skein of Shetland floss, one bat fine cotton. Divide the silkoline into two equal parts, place in a frame and put in layers of cotton between, ready for tying. Tie the ribbons all in tiny bows. Thread the needle with the Shetland floss, using it double; bring the needle up from the bottom, then down again, taking stitch through one of the bows. Tie the yarn on the wrong side with three or four extra needles tied in the knot to make a small tuft.

Continue the knotting in this manner, beginning with two and a half inches from the edges, making the tufts four inches apart. Turn in the edges all around and buttonhole closely, with the yarn used singly.

Crochet a row of shells around the quilt, each shell of five double crochet fastened with a single crochet and placed close enough together to make the work lie flat and frilled at the corners.

On the right side, just inside the buttonholing, make a row of feather stitching with the yarn.

This makes a light, dainty cover for the baby. It is very pretty of blue silkoline, tied with white ribbons, or of white silkoline tied with pink and blue.

To Make White Lace Yellow. White lace, net, tulle, or anything of similar texture, can quickly be transformed into a cream-white or the fashionable yellow shade in a very simple way. It being a dry method, the lace loses none of its newness, and the most delicate lace may be subjected to this treatment without harm.

Put a quantity of ochre (yellow), in a box or paper bag, drop the material inside, and shake the box until the powder has sufficiently tinted the lace. After removing the material, shake out any superfluous powder. If a pale tint is wanted, mix rice powder with the ochre. Dainty-looking lace waists may take on a new appearance if treated to an ochre bath. This is one of the milliners' secrets, also the dressmakers'.

Grain Letter
CHICAGO, April 29.—Wheat was weak this morning but after declining 1-2 to 3-8 cent the market rallied close to yesterday's finish.
Recent weakness had developed a goodly short interest and when the Chapin house bought 750,000 bushels at the start it took the slack out of the market and scattered covering did the rest. On the setback
May sold at $1.06 1-4, July at $1.00
7-8, and September within 1 5-8 cents of last low price on the crop recently established. On the rally selling increased again.
Corn started easy and declined
1-2 cent on commission house selling but was steadied by changing in May hedges into July by elevator interests and the upturn in wheat.
The changing of hedges is taken to mean that deliveries may not be so heavy as expected although they still are expected to be liberal.
Oats were under pressure early from northwestern houses and local elevators and prices declined 3-8 to 1-2 cent. There was further scattered liquidation of May.
Provisions were helped by 5 cent advance in hogs and aggressive local buying but after prices had advanced 5 to 12 1-2 cents there was a partial reaction. Demand was not general.
Wheat soared in the last hour, closing from 1 1/4 to 1 1/2 cents above

A NEW LION

PARIS, April 29.—Roosevelt gone. Paulhan becomes the "lion of the hour" in France. The boulevards are echoing with shouts for the daring aviator.

It's the same with women who fish for compliments as it is with other anglers. The big ones always get away.

MY CINDERELLA GIRL PROVES SUCCESSFUL

William Norris has achieved the greatest success of his artistic career in "My Cinderella Girl," which is now crowding the Whitney opera house, Chicago. The play is a peppy story of college life, and speeds from the first word and incident to the last at a breathless gait, leaving a trail of laughter worth going miles to hear. It is fine, too, and does not depend upon even the slightest suggestion to which good taste could take exception. The engagement which was intended for four weeks has been extended so that the delightful play and its brilliant star are to continue the attraction of the Whitney into the summer months. Tickets are even now on sale for the performances of Decoration day and July 4th. No success of recent years has aroused the interest in theatrical circles created by this triumph of Mr. Norris, and none has been more welcome to rank and file of the profession.

"Naw," said the friend engaged at the mortar mixing, "I had it; give it to somebody else."

PROFIT BY OTHERS' EXPERIENCE

Gray Hair Restored

My hair was getting quite gray and falling out rapidly and I was troubled with a terrible itching of the scalp. My head was full of dandruff, which fell upon my clothes and kept me continually brushing it off. While on a visit to Rochester I heard of your Sage and Sulphur for the hair. I got a bottle and used it. A few applications relieved the itching, my hair stopped falling out and gradually came back to its natural color. It is now a nice dark brown color, soft, glossy and pliable. Several of my friends want to use it, and I want to know what you will charge me for six bottles of it.

MISS E. A. ROSS, Sharon, Mercer Co., Pa.

Grew Hair on a Bald Head

For two or three years my hair had been falling out and getting quite thin until the top of my head was entirely bald. About four months ago I commenced using Sage and Sulphur. The first bottle seemed to do some good and I kept using it regularly until now I have used four bottles. The whole top of my head is fairly covered and keeps coming in thicker. I shall keep on using it a while longer, as I notice a constant improvement.
